Someone on here may know about these songs ;-) by Shane Barnard. The words are incredible and i have prayed them many times since first hearing them. just for the Lord to take my love away- for Himself- so that i have none to give to the "world" or to my "self". I get so tired of fighting to try not to love the world- or fighting some lust for materialism (or whatever) I pray that He will take my love away.

"Take my Love Away"- Shane B.

Lord, i'm giving all i am with everything i am holy and annointed one, to You i lift my hands i surrender all i have take my love away, take my love away, take my love away oh Lord, i've given it my best to take my love away if i could run around the world to fan the fire in me if only i could swim the ocean wide to take my lve away from the world and me

take my love away, take my love away, take my love away

i think i read i cannot love the world and love You take my love and plant it deep where life is found in You plant it in the heart of Thee, i'm tired of trying to believe i've worn out all my strategy there's nothing i can do oh Lord to...

take my love away

I have truly found the answer!: more of Him and less of me!

"The Answer" -Shane B.

i've tried more of me and i've come up dry trading You for things things that go away my happiness is found in less of me and more of You

i have found the answer is to love You and be loved by You alone You crucify me and the world to me and i will only boast in You i'm so satisfied at the thought of You

growing up in me covering everything
my happiness is found in less
of me and more of You

thanks for letting me share!

One thing that seems missing from here sometimes is the focus on "intimacy" with the Lord. Let's not forget that He so desires this.
