Shalom dear ones! I've been on this Index since April '07. Just never checked out all that is here. Wow! There's much meat to feast on here, praise the Lord! With all the dryness of preaching in this land, USA, sermonindex.net is a lifeline. One thing though about such a void of good teaching/preaching is that it truly drives me to the Word more than ever before. These 25 years that I've been walking with the master has seen me deeply in the Word. I've always been one to read of saints such as Sparks; Nee; Penn-Lewis; Wesley; Phil Beach, Jr; etc. So these sermons are a real joy. Thank you all for what you bring to the table! James B.
