

Devotional Thoughts :: Doesnt HE wonderfully thread and rethread us??

Doesnt HE wonderfully thread and rethread us?? - posted by HIServant (), on: 2007/12/9 22:14

Devotional: Matthew 25:21 "His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'"

Tonight after a great Kids Christmas musical, my ears were blessed by the praises of others for the work which my wife and I had volunteered. But what struck me far greater was that no one individual or two...were due those accolades. In fact, dozens of people were equally instrumental in the production of the musical and as such, making in a wondrous experience for all to enjoy. What sticks out to me is that CHRIST orchestrates the threading of each of our strands...to make a cloth of service to bless and serve others. In essence, it's who we are...and how HE calls us. That's why HE says, "Be faithful with a few things...and HE will bless us with sovereign threading and re-threading...again and again...for HIS glory! Amen and amen!

Perfectly Threaded

One said to the other, "Permit me to serve.
I will bolster your faith and likewise, encourage."
So the other agreed and together they walked.
Then a third person came...so this pairing was taught.
Hence, this trio progressed in the way of the LORD...
leading yet more to join...serving in one accord.
Near the end of the day, countless numbers – combined moved with purpose and breath as though seamless...entwined.
Then observing their work, so Another did query...
"To whose credit belongs this bright fabric...so worthy?
From all – then in unison – came the response...
"Twas not I for my part is this thread...just this one!"
Thus the Master of heavenly cloth...it is HE who binds One's steps with others...and your thread to me!

As HIS servant in your service,
WVW Jasnoch
12/9/07