Free Audiobook Download of the Month

Each month christianaudio.com gives away a premium audiobook download for free. The way our Free Audiobook of the Month program works is like this: we give away one audiobook download each month totally free. The audiobook we give away is available for free only once - ever.

Use the coupon code JAN2008 to redeem this month's free audiobook download from christianaudio.com

Paradise Lost by John Milton

[Image: http://www.christianaudio.com/images/Paradise_Lost_Search.jpg]

Paradise Lost is considered to be the greatest epic poem in the English language. In it John Milton seeks to justify the ways of God to men; through relating the story of Satan's rebellion in Heaven, the deception and fall of Man, and the presaged event of Redemption through Jesus, the Son of God; the Second Adam.

What you mean? What format are the audio files? If they are MP3 you could put them as any other MP3 file.

Yeah, they're in the MP3 format, but for some reason I can't seem to put them on my player.

Is there any error during the transfer? Did you get any error? Describe the situation more in details, so someone may help.

I may be a bit stupid, but where is the coupon JAN2008. I've looked everywhere but can't see it. If I click onto Add to cart, I have a bill to pay. I joined the newsletter thinking I would see the coupon when I tried to download it, but ... no! It says it is free, but there is a price tag!

when you add it to the cart and then go to checkout, there is a place for a coupon. that is where you enter JAN2008.
