

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer for my sister...*Prayer for my sister... - posted by ccchhrrriiiss (), on: 2008/1/22 2:39

Hello...

I am asking for anyone who feels led to pray for my sister and her family. I don't feel the liberty to go into the details, but I am praying for a quick miracle in this situation.

This is my next-to-oldest sister, Cindy. Her husband's name is Joe. Their little boy's name is Elijah. Pray for this family to line up with the will and Word of God! They need a miracle...soon.

Thank you for your prayers. Perhaps in the future I can explain the purpose of this need. For now, please continue to pray for my sister and her family.

God is still able to perform the miraculous.
