Here are two EXCELLENT new compilations I would like to share with everyone featuring speaker Carter Conlon from Time Square Church. Both are short - 2-3 min. but very powerful.

(http://www.obeyjesus.net/component/option,com_docman/task,doc_download/gid,261/) You Don't Know

(http://www.obeyjesus.net/component/option,com_docman/task,doc_download/gid,260/) Behold The Lamb Of God

God bless,

Thank you brother Patrick.

I've been wanting to hear EVERYTHING from Carter Conlon - but I can't change my computer.

If anyone could put these on a CD for me - I would be so grateful and will reimburse whatever the cost.

Please PM me, if someone has the time and ability to burn as many as possible, onto a CD to play on my stereo.

LORD richly Bless you Patrick and Mary and family and whomever has time to fill my coffers with Brother Conlon messages.

His Love to all.

Annie

Hi Patrick,

First, I can get only the 'You Don't Know', to play. There seems to be a bit of code missing from the other.

Secondly, whoever put these together should make it their urgent business to lay hands on a translation of all the words to their chosen background music.

In my humble opinion, particularly because of the content of the speech extracted from the Conlon sermon - about how a Christian's presence might thwart evil intentions - this music is not suitable. Sorry to throw such a damp squid on this effort, but Carter Conlon's words would be worth a great deal more against a background of silence, than against a piece of music which glorifies sexual immorality.

To late!

Ugh! I love Carter Conlon, but that music playing in the background in the first recording I had to shut it off. I love Opera, but that was too much.

I'm afraid I have to agree with the others. The background music is much too loud and, frankly, I felt it was trying to dramatize and entertain more than it was trying to emphasize the message.

Call me old-fashioned (please!), but I think I'd rather just hear the sermon as it was delivered. I'm sorry, I don't mean to t hrow the second damp squid into the pile.
