

Miracles that follow the plow :: Two Suicide Calls

Two Suicide Calls - posted by Eli_Barnabas (), on: 2008/1/31 17:47

Dear brothers and sisters,

I work at a Christian literature mission in Logan, Utah, we received two calls today from two different people who are on the verge of suicide in very desperate situations. Not knowing where to turn, with the police possibly upon them, they called here. I'm asking for prayer, not only for their safety, but for their salvation. Please pray urgently dear saints. Both of these men are true candidates for the undeserving grace of God.

With thankfulness,
-Eli

Re: Two Suicide Calls - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2008/1/31 17:50

Quote:
-----Both of these men are true candidates for the undeserving grace of God.

Praying.

Re: Two Suicide Calls, on: 2008/1/31 17:59

Praying for God to intervene in their lives in a miraculous way.

Re:, on: 2008/1/31 18:38

Praying!

Re: - posted by BrianPaul (), on: 2008/1/31 18:47

Praying!

Re: Two Suicide Calls - posted by nowhr2hide (), on: 2008/1/31 19:13

be praying for them

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2008/1/31 19:40

From someone who has been close, I will be praying.

The book I always remember reading was the beginning of Visions of Heaven and Hell by John Bunyan in which the angel pulls him right before he is about to commit suicide and says do not deface the image of God that has always stuck