

Devotional Thoughts :: Christ takes the dross out! -watson

Christ takes the dross out! -watson - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2008/2/11 10:54

Christ takes the dross out!

(Thomas Watson, "A Plea for the Godly")

Jesus Christ presents the prayers of His people to His Father. Prayer, as it comes from the godly—^{is mixed with sin.} But Christ takes the dross out of their prayers—and presents nothing but pure gold! He dips the prayers of His people in His blood—and mingles them with His sweet incense—and so they are most fragrant and aromatic to God. A weak prayer being laid upon Christ as the altar—this altar sanctifies the prayer!

"Therefore he is able to save completely, those who come to God through Him, because He always lives to intercede for them!" Hebrews 7:25

Re: Christ takes the dross out! -watson - posted by SimpleLiving (), on: 2008/2/11 12:02

What a perfect companion to the other post "We would hardly recognize it!" by Charles Spurgeon!

What a great reminder that none of our works will ever be good enough to earn enough merit to approach the Father without the Son and His blood. Remarkable!