Dear friends please hold me and my wife up in prayer. We have had some difficult times lately as she and I differ in many things concerning Christianity.

She has come home from her church and decided she would stay somewhere else for a couple of days. I don't know what to do, I am afraid.

Thank you all, and God's grace to you.

Dear Patrick,

I will be praying for you both.

Dear Sir,

I will uphold you and your wife and family in prayer, my husband and I just come out of that situation and it is a real battle not only amongst ourselves but strongly in spiritual battle.

There is a site that helps us through especially my husband. He has been listening to Pastor Keith Graham teaching in marriage and it's quite helpful.

I hope I'm allowed to share this

Praying with the others Brother Patrick.

Romans 8:28 is For 29.

Rom 5:3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

Rom 5:4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

Rom 5:5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

God is a God of impossibilities.

May He help both of you.
