Is there an interest in coordinating having David Wilkerson come to Texas to minister for a weekend? - posted by yulan

I was posting to see if there was an interest as a group of people that are in texas in possibly coordinating having a speaker come to minister.

I called David Wilkerson's ministry and I asked why Pastor David doesn't minister within the states very often. She stated that he does not get many invitations to minister within the states. So I posted on the board to see if there was an interest within texas to possibly coordinate having him come for a weekend to minister. Maybe as a small group of praying individuals this could be accomplished

Is there an interest?

Brother, I think this is an excellent thought and prayer.

Will be praying.

Brothers and Sisters,

I have had it on my heart to see brother Dave Wilkerson come speak at this year's revival conference. Personally to try and "make" a new event work to get pastors to primarily come is hard. I know Wilkerson only speaks these days in his old age at events where "many" pastors are present. The revival conference has many pastors coming out and I believe this year will be no exception.

Pray that God shows favor and allows David Wilkerson to come and speak at this year's event.
