This is an interesting talk.

From Japanese racism to Judaism counting as an invalid religion...

You listen, too!

What do you think? Extreme? Or perfectly balanced?

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 14:48

I'm downloading it and it says it will take over 4 hours to download in that little download box.

Is that normal ?

Edit: Now it's saying over 8 hours.

???

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 14:56

Never mind. It downloaded in 14 min.s.

Something's just screwy with that little download box I guess.

Thanks!

Hi Annie,

I've no idea. This is why you need broadband, because it then it would take a few minutes at most, for these larger files. Ron Bailey has had his files made somewhat smaller, for this very reason, and also, people with a download limit can get more for their money\month.

Anyway.... if you want to cut your losses, I think you know most of this in general. It's a very calm Katz speaking. He predicts the Emerging Merger though, and describes it quite well in his own way. We haven't got as far as being asked to give obeissance to other gods in public, but we're moving in that direction.

He also made sense of Tony Blair's thing about religion becoming 'a private matter'. It gave one the impression Art could have been at the UN meetings where the spiritual team worked out how they were going to present their plan to the world. (Incredible, in a way.)

Annie, you'd be better downloading something from the last week of Times Square - (www.tscnyc.com) www.tscnyc.com.

Thanks for mentioning that bomb. Later, I'll look for a word on it from a news site, just for information. May not post it here though.

Thank you Dorcas. I had no problem getting David Wilkerson's sermon today - but I could not get this one by Art.

I will request that someone email it to me. It sounded good. I got about 2 min.s of it only.

Some download with no problem at all - others - fahgedaboudit That's N.Y. talk. :-)

Thanks again!

Edit for the bomb story.

Request received :)

I will send them both on e-mail this night, sister.

Edit: I would recommend anyone else who has problems with downloads, to install some download manager.

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 16:10

Thank you Brother.

I 'did' get the David Wilkerson message today - just no Art Katz.

GOD Bless you!!

Hi Dorcas, I put in that website address and got <http://www.tscnyc.com/>

But the strange thing is - that when I put in <http://www.tscnyc.org/> it doesn't come up at all. It's 'at' the TSC site - but the page stays white.

Another ~> ?

This was the first time I've heard his voice.

Have read his messages, but this affected me in a way that I will not forget. Such humility. Wish he were still with us, but that is selfishness on my part, I suppose.

Thank you much brothers.

Annie, I do apologise!

I have no idea why the home page wasn't loading - except, they are linking a video to it at the moment, about their outreach in Jamaica over a number of years; could that have caused a problem?

You can always go straight for (www.tscnyc.org/sermons.php) www.tscnyc.org/sermons.php from your pc. We're supposed to link only to the home page, I believe, from here.

Re:, on: 2008/3/9 1:42

Hi Sis ~ Yes, that link works - Thank you!

Downloading here <http://artkatzministries.org/> while reading Here.

I will get the others from this link you just gave tomorrow.

Thank you!

We put our clocks ahead one hour this morning.
Yaah, more Sun-shine. 8-)
