Here is a post straight from his website. Michael Sweet's wife has been battling cancer since February 2007. You have to read what she has and still is going through. Please pray for her, Michael and their 2 children. Oh man... this is truly disheartening. But we serve a mighty God, and as the song says: "We'll understand it farther along".

Hey Mike & Kyle, if you're reading this... my prayers are definitely with you all and praying for a mighty and miraculous healing!
