I'd ask that you guys pray for my friend Amber. She is not saved, and needs to come to know God. I have been praying for her for a few years now, and lately I believe God has been truly pulling on her heart. She has begun to really ask me many questions about my faith since she heard me preach a sermon last week, where she wept during it.

Pray that the pull of her father's catholicism, and that her mother's mormonism do not drag her into a state where she says that the darkness she has is light. The next time we hang out, I believe the Lord wants me to ask her some questions ... specifically, "But who do you say that I am?"

Also, pray for a manager of mine at work, Mary, who is not saved, but seems to be seeking. She is very hungry for spiritual things, and needs to get saved as well.
