If ever we have any doubts about which are actually the true and false prophets, we can always take what the modern day prophets say and compare it to God's Holy Word and HIS true prophets. As we do this we can also show ourselves to a workman approved in correctly dividing the WORD OF GOD and we can always be ready to give an answer for the hope that we have in Jesus.

Thanks for the links, this will be helpful to many.

Also, here's some simple advice that I have found helpful when I "try the spirits" of a speaker or writer...

from AW TOZER...

Some questions to ask, how does it affect my relationship to...

1) God - does it exalt Him?

- 2) Christ - does it make Him more wonderful or does it make the man bigger?
- 3) Scriptures - does it contradict God's word?
- 4) Sin - does it make sin intolerable?
- 5) World - is it drawing me to worldly things?

from TA Sparks...

- 1) does it crucify self-interest?
- 2) does it glorify God or man?
- 3) can it work out to an increase of Christ?

In Christ,

Ron

Beware my brethren for these "so-called" healing artists and prophets. God's Word has final authority of revelation. It is complete. There is no need for further prophecies. God's Word defines it all.

Also, the charismatic movement is very dangerous. I was in the movement for a brief period of time and then God anointed me with the gift of discernment and I walked away without looking back. I had many friends that are still active in the charismatic church. Be very careful of these people.

My only advice is to pray for God to give you discernment to distinguish right from wrong or false teaching.

Here are a few links to help better understand the charismatic movement and its entities and doctrine. I hope they help.

God bless you all.

Joe

I have many more links to share. However, these should help for now.

If anyone that is reading is involved in the "movement" please know that people are praying for God to bring discernment to His people. Please reach out for answers in prayer if you are involved in something that does not seem right. That is God talking to you through the gift of discerning true doctrine from false doctrine.

Wow, this message is powerful. It seems to me that Mr. Conlon, more than any other preacher, speaks so clearly and directly to what the Lord is seeking in His church in our day. Maybe it's just me but this man's anointed preaching stirs my spirit deeply and I know I'm hearing something of the heart of God. It produces a desperate yearning for gospel reality in my life.

Description: We read in the book of Jeremiah severe warnings and an outcry against prophets who have gone astray and lead God's people along with them in their web of deceit. The greatest malady in the Church today is the lack of the fear of God. May we examine ourselves to see if we are in the faith and the faith that is truly rooted in God's Word!

Take heed (September 12/2006)

Reviewed by: Wheelz1951

My advice on this sermon would be "Take heed all those who claim to speak for the Lord." You better think twice. art preaches from Jerimiah 23. IMO, the "faith & prosperity movement" as gone a bit too far and this message from Art Katz giv es stern warnings. If you've come thru the Jesus Movement & listen to Copeland, Hagan, Hinn, Fred Price, etc, this message is for you!

Startling! (May 06/2006)

Katz's message is always startling, fresh, and pointed. Bless God for His servant and the message He put in his mouth.

A word from God (May 04/2006)

Reviewed by: Corneliu

I recomend this sermon to everybody, especialy churh leaders. We need this in a church that seems to have less and less discernment. Brother Art says it exactly the way it is. False profets are very subtle. But what they say, "is evel because it does not come from God" even if it sounds religious.

False Prophets and Fleshly Prophecy (September 07/2005)

Strong word on what a true prophet is and is not. Those who act in the role of prophet must make sure that God truly is speaking and not attempt to use God as some sort of endorsement.

God send us the fire,hammer of your Word!!! (June 10/2005)

Reviewed by: Jaime

a message to examine ourselves if we are in the faith,with so much running around in the church today with its sophisticated programs is very easy to get caught up and entangled by these false prophets using the name of the Lord for their own gain,like brother Katz says we all need to repent even if we never run with them,the fact that we are part of the same generation makes us feel guilty,may the Lord help us sound the trumpet when we are sent by Him.

False prophets (January 16/2005)

Reviewed by: PDC

Art Katz gives a very good message about preaching and prophecying in the flesh. Beginning his sermon from the Old Testament(Jeremiah 23:32) he brings this prophecy into the New Testament application and a latter day revelation of apostate preaching. A good challenge for the spirit filled believer to watch his/her words(Psalm 141:3) and for each Christian to "take heed that no man deceive you."

Thank you for your posts, I look forward to listening and praying in this hour of need. I just listened to this one by Carter Conlon that is a must add called "Satanic Seduction in The Last Days":
