I heard on the news this morning that the latest victim of terrorism in the middle east, where another man has been taken hostage, is a Christian. He is vietmanese, on there on some sort of business. Fox News reported that this man is also known for preaching. Pray for this man that God would set him free, and give him the courage and peace to be able to endure the trial set before him.

Sorry to say, but this man was beheaded today. Correction, the man was a South Korean.

I read a bit about this young man today and he was hoping to become a missionary to the Middle East and he took this job to raise money for additional schooling (apparently he was completing seminary, not sure if he finished) and get used to the area.

Let's pray for the Middle East. I know the young man's death was not in vain but when I saw the pictures of his family, I was just heart-broken. Let's keep them in our prayers, as well as the lost in the Middle Eastern countries.
