Holy Spirit Speakings, on: 2008/5/10 15:07

Jesus told the Apostles he was going away, but when he did go away, he would send the Holy Spirit that would bring into remembrance the things he had said.

He said, in my Father's house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you so. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

When the Holy Spirit came in the Upper Room, it anointed them to preach the Gospel and later on the Day of Pentecost they explained to the crowd just who Jesus was, why He came, where He went, and told them that Jesus had left for them a comforter (Holy Spirit). When the Holy Spirit brought these things into remembrance he had said and done, not only did they verbally speak them then, but wrote them down as HIS New Testament. His spoken Word, was spoken by the Apostles was no more or no less relevant then, in relating to everyday life and salvation as His Testament as His written word is now, in relating to everyday life.

His Spirit brought His Word into remembrance also to the Apostle Paul and the other Apostles, who were appointed by Jesus, and they recorded the things that are written in the Epistles, (the letters). Anyone should be very careful, in adding things or taking away anything, from the basic principals of His Word. God's Word is in perfect harmony with HIS basic principles from beginning to end.

His Holy Spirit lives on the inside of each believer that Jesus has saved. The Holy Spirit of promise has sealed each one. As we learn the things Jesus said and done from His written Word, Old and New Testament, the Holy Spirit brings those same things, that the Prophets and the Apostles wrote down, into remembrance in the minds of believers everywhere and guides them into all truth and then those believers tell others, just as Jesus said, and when you have received the Holy Spirit, you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, Judea and the uttermost parts of the world. Where is your Jerusalem and Judea?

Acts 2:14-3:1

14 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. 15 These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! 16 No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 "'In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. 18 Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. 19 I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. 20 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. 21 And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'

22 "Men of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know. 23 This man was handed over to you by God's set purpose and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. 24 But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. 25 David said about him:

"I saw the Lord always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken. 26 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will live in hope, 27 because you will not abandon me to the grave, nor will you let your Holy One see decay. 28 You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.'

29 "Brothers, I can tell you confidently that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day. 30 But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants on his throne. 31 Seeing what was ahead, he spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to the grave, nor did his body see decay. 32 God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of the fact. 33 Exalted to the right hand of God, he has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said,

"The Lord said to my Lord: 'Sit at my right hand 35 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.' "

36 "Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

38 Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins . And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off-for all whom the Lord our God will call."

40 With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." 4

1 Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. 43 Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles. 44 All the believers were together and had everything in common. 45 Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need. 46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, 47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.
