

News and Current Events :: Ahmadinejad Calls U.S. 'Satanic,' Israel 'About to Die'

Ahmadinejad Calls U.S. 'Satanic,' Israel 'About to Die' - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2008/6/3 18:14

Ahmadinejad Calls U.S. 'Satanic,' Israel 'About to Die'

Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad predicted that Muslims would uproot "satanic powers" and reaffirmed his prediction that the Jewish state will soon be wiped off the map, the Agence France-Presse news agency reported Monday.

"I must announce that the Zionist regime (Israel), with a 60-year record of genocide, plunder, invasion and betrayal is about to die and will soon be erased from the geographical scene," Ahmadinejad said.

"Today, the time for the fall of the satanic power of the United States has come and the countdown to the annihilation of the emperor of power and wealth has started," the hard-line president said. ...

read more: www.foxnews.com

Re: Ahmadinejad Calls U.S. 'Satanic,' Israel 'About to Die', on: 2008/6/3 18:32

Ahmadinejad's statements are typical of radical Islam. I recently watched a secular documentary on radical Islam called (<http://www.obsessionthemovie.com/>) Obsession. This documentary contains media footage from the Middle East that is shocking. I've seen bits and pieces of some of the video clips in this documentary, but to see it all put together is very sobering. It is heart breaking the degree that Muslim children have been abused with the indoctrination of a very hateful ideology. We need to pray earnestly for the Muslim people and to reach out to them whenever possible.

If you haven't seen this documentary, I recommend that you do. It's very hard to watch (warning - there is some very violent video footage), but it certainly brings a greater understanding of radical Islam that we need to know about. I think the documentary can be found on youtube if you do a search for 'obsession: Radical Islam's War'.

How comforting it is to know that our God is sovereign and all powerful!

"Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion." Psalm 2

Jesus Christ is returning, and the rage of the heathen only increases our awareness that the full and utter defeat of the enemies of God lies ahead, and Christ will reign victoriously as King of Kings!

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2008/6/3 18:49

Quote:

-----radical Islam

isnt it true of all islam

Re: - posted by BeYeDoers (), on: 2008/6/3 18:54

ditto

Re:, on: 2008/6/3 19:01

Quote:

deltadom wrote:

Quote:

-----radical Islam

isnt it true of all islam

Yes, and that is one of the points of that documentary I mentioned.

Re: Mofaz: Israel will attack Iran if it doesn't quit nuclear program, on: 2008/6/6 18:56

Israel will attack Iran if it doesn't abandon its nuclear program, Transportation Minister Shaul Mofaz was quoted Friday as saying.

Mofaz also said Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad "will disappear before Israel does," Yediot Ahronot reported. Ahmadinejad has called repeatedly for Israel's destruction....

According to the report, Mofaz - a former chief of staff and defense minister - has concluded that international sanctions haven't curbed Tehran's nuclear ambitions.

"If Iran continues its nuclear arms program - we will attack it," Mofaz was quoted as saying. "The sanctions aren't effective. There will be no choice but to attack Iran to halt the Iranian nuclear program."

An Israeli military strike against Iran would have US backing, Mofaz said.

(<http://www.jpost.com/servlet/Satellite?cid1212659678341&pagenameJPost%2FJPArticle%2FShowFull>) source

Re: - posted by KingJimmy (), on: 2008/6/6 19:06

We are not too far from these times:

Zechariah 14:3 It will come about in that day that I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it will be severely injured. And all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it.

Sadly, these problems will not go away. Like a sore that refuses to heal, so will this problem continue to fester until there is a day of ultimate provocation. Days of great violence are ahead. They are just around the corner. Will we be prepared?

Re: - posted by narrowpath, on: 2008/6/6 20:56

I recently visited Iran.

The people I met there do not like the regime at all. One even said that Ahmadinejad is a madman.

At night I wanted to pray for the country, I felt very oppressed and even felt it difficult to breathe and I could hardly sleep or stay awake. Maybe the prince of Persia resisted me like in Daniel 10:13. I did not get far with my prayers but I was somehow aware that a calamity would come over this country.

Pray for the Christians in this country. There are quite a few and I met some once. Some have been caught evang elizing and were released after signing their death sentence should they be caught again. I met a man whose father in law was a prominent martyr for the Christian faith. There is also still a Jewish community in Iran.

Though a nation at enmity with Israel and the US, may God have a plentiful harvest in Iran!

By the way, Sermonindex can be accessed in both Iran and Saudi Arabia, most other Christian sites I tried were banned .

narrowpath

Re: Ahmadinejad Calls U.S. 'Satanic,' Israel 'About to Die' - posted by JoanM, on: 2008/6/6 21:05

<http://www.israelnationalnews.com/>

Maybe I should not have posted this possibly useful news source link as a new thread, but as a "reply" to this thread

Re: - posted by HindsFeet, on: 2008/6/6 21:28

I have been getting emails from Joel Rosenberg's organization. Funny, the same news was sent out by him today. He is a completed Jew and expert in Middle east issues. I believe he works or has worked at the State Dept. He has written a couple of novels based on end times prophecy/Exekiel.

I hope I am not breaking the rules by mentioning him--but often he gives interesting insight into what our government may be doing (or not doing) and helpful prayer suggestions. You can google his name to get to his site.

Re: - posted by jiyouk, on: 2008/6/9 20:54

I too have visited Iran numerous times and I think it's safe to say that not all Muslims are radical. Most of them are like lukewarm Christians who believe because their parents told them so, cause it's tradition. Most young students want money and women. They don't know what they believe in.

It's like the radical government has forced too much to the people that the people are now turning the other way - to materialism.

I think we should be careful in how we view the Muslims. They are souls that are lost, not blood thirsty murderers. You'd feel it the instant you step on the airport. If you tell them you're a christian they say "Jesus and Mohhamad were both great prophets." The anguish of the Lord is great upon the nation.

Let's pray "all those in authority" and for the Christians in Iran. They come to know Jesus through dreams and visions. Then they get satellite TV and view Christian channels. They are very devoted but at the same time very scared.

Re:Jiyouk: terrorism is the intimidation of the fear of death.Mercy, on: 2008/6/10 5:20

We need to continually be reminded that we war against powers and principalities, in heavenly places, not on the Earth. The people of the Earth are the Exact ones that Jesus died for and they belong to the Lord to save, just like He saved this sinner, and each of you reading.

Our battle is ultimately with the fallen Angels who are occupying His dominion for the time being, and the Gospel will unseat them; it's just a matter of time. Iran falls into the category of "all nations", just as America. The same "all nations", that Jesus commanded His disciples to Preach His name in.

The stakes have been raised, and this is an act of God, I believe, that will ultimately end with every tribe, nation and tongue under the dominion of the antichrist. It appears to me that this is Radical Islam; the white Horse of the Unveiling of Jesus. Mohammad supposedly ascended to Heaven on this famous white steed, on the temple mount, where Abraham offered Isaac.

Jiyouk spoke of fear, I stumbled into an all Islamic hotel in Hyderabad India, exhausted and alone. I encountered an "IMMAM" who was holding court with a group of young men. He was dressed in pure white, about 50 years old, and was Persian, not Hindi. These young disciples somehow found out that I was an American. I was hated, with a venom that was indeed terrifying. They could barely conceal it, with eyes flashing murder.

My only weapon, my words, were taken from me, as they spoke another language. I could not proclaim Jesus. I felt like a lamb waiting for the slaughter. I must say that I was apprehensive to the edge of fear. I realized that any of these young men could, and would kill me, given a chance, thinking that they were doing Allah a favor, and no one would ever miss me.

Like Paul, who escaped by the basket over the wall, I bailed out one morning early, and checked out, without notice. I thought I could die, and knives and my neck came through my imagination, in a real way.

I thought of Jiyouk's report of Christian's being afraid there, I could not imagine living day to day with your children in this setting, and having to make a living also. What courage it must take, for a Christian to live as a disciple there, openly, and to walk in love, also. It is mind boggling to imagine a life lived under this pressure.

My compassion has been stirred through this thread for my family in ISLAM, and the lost there under this awful demonic bondage.

P.S., I have had the privilege to see two Muslims saved unto Jesus, but I lost track of them over the years.

Re: - posted by ginnyrose (), on: 2008/6/10 8:03

Quote:

-----We need to continually be reminded that we war against powers and principalities, in heavenly places, not on the Earth.

As I read this thread - a very interesting and sobering one - I am convinced beyond a shadow of a doubt that we are indeed seeing something that goes far beyond mere politics. Just like Brothertom said (in the quote above.)

I love to read the book of Revelation because of the inspiration, encouragement it provides to the serious student. As I read it I sense that God through calamities is working to restore people to himself, most notably Israel. The forces that come against apostate Israel work to destroy it and God is allowing it to cleanse it. So you have two evil 'kingdoms' at war: Israel and the Arabs. Understanding Revelation this way, evokes a question to me, an American - far removed physically from the Middle East: are we helping the nation Israel any by looking the other way when they mistreat the Christian? the alien? and the Muslim nations goal is to drive the Jews into the sea....this we know. Would God's purposes be better served if we would back off a bit, get out of the way so God can work? (Granted He will work in spite of us and our interference.)

Anyhow, these are my thoughts on this issue.

I do not relish defending my insight/interpretation of Revelation - it (the Book) is too sacred for that - not that I think I know it all, just that there are too many things we do not know and we do not want to rip apart that which is holy because of our ignorance. But I do wonder, has anyone else experience this sense?

ginnyrose

Re: - posted by Ruach34 (), on: 2008/6/10 12:11

Thanks, Brother Tom for sharing that story. It was a quick insight into what many are going through in China, India, Iran and in many other places of the world.

Have we settled, have I settled, to put my neck out for these lost ones? Really put my neck out against the sharp blade of a knife, held by one who viciously hates me? Can we say, in the face of certain death, "You would have no power over me if it were not granted to you from above."

Wow, what a statement our Lord Jesus said!

Thanks brother tom, that really stirred me up. I think it is this stirring that is most effective at building us up in spirit, that we are called to bear the reproach of Christ and be led as lambs to the slaughter. We don't need the emotional stirring that occurs in a lot of places in the US and abroad. We need the stirring of the Holy Spirit to this mind.

Re: - posted by narrowpath, on: 2008/6/10 18:04

I believe it is just as dangerous to live as a Christian in the US, UK or Europe. We are not really persecuted but poisoned with false doctrine, lured into deception by false prophets and kept in bondage by false shepherds. The world has so much to offer to us and many Christians are so entangled by it that they cannot see how enslaved they are.

All nations are more or less under satanic power, there is not such a thing as a Christian or godly nation and there never has been before the Lords installs His Kingdom.

Our call is to save individual souls out of this haunted world that will soon come to an end. I am looking forward for it.

A couple of days ago an Iranian man visited our fellowship and I had the opportunity share the Gospel with him. I believe the door to share Christ with Moslems is wide open I find them to be the most attentive and grateful listeners.

narrowpath

Re:, on: 2008/6/10 18:13

Shaul Mofaz (Israel's main liaison)

"Asked how he responds to the harsh statements of Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad in Rome that Israel should be wiped off the map, Mofaz said: "He will disappear before Israel does."

<http://www.cnn.com/2008/WORLD/meast/06/06/israel.iran/index.html#cnnSTCText>