167 days until the Greenock, Scotland Revival Conference

We find four rules for doing the King's business in His Word. We are to do it, first – "Heartily" (Col. 3:23); second – "Diligently" (Ezra 7:23); third – "Faithfully" (2 Chron. 34:12); fourth – "Speedily" (Ezra 7:21).

Let us ask Him to give us the grace of energy to apply them this day to whatever He indicates as our part of His business, remembering that He said, "I must be about My Father's business" (Luke 2:49).

Especially in that part of it which is between Himself and ourselves alone, let us never delay. Oh, the incalculable blessings that we have already lost by putting off our own dealings with our King! Abigail first "made haste" (1 Sam 25:18) to meet David for mere safety. Soon afterwards she again "hasted and arose and went after the messengers of David, and became his wife" (1 Sam 25:42).

Thus hasting, we shall rise from privilege to privilege, and "go from strength to strength" (Psa. 84:7).

He who hath won thy heart
Will keep it true and free;
He who hath shown thee what thou art
Will show Himself to thee.
He who hath bid thee live,
And made thy life His own,
Life more abundantly will give,
And keep it His alone;
He loveth always, faileth never;
So rest on Him, today, for ever! -Frances Ridley Havergal
