changing4Him,

Welcome to the website!

I have to ask, because your name does not give it away, are you male or female?

How long have you been a Christian?

There is, as you probably know, a wealth of messages on this website, which edify and strengthen the Christian in their walk.

God bless.

Welcome changing4Him!

I pray that the time you spend here on SI will be profitable to your walk with God and edifying to all those you fellowship with on here.

As Enid said, there is a wealth of messages, articles and discussions that can be very enriching to one's spiritual life.

Some of the preachers on here who are have greatly blessed my life are
