Provoking and challenging message - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2008/9/15 14:29

This message was preached by Zac Poonen in Norway, and i was very touched by this message, what is so challenging and provoking is how brother Zac shares about doctrines and our bible and how we share the gospel. And how we can deceive ourselves with our right doctrine and think we are ok just because we hold a doctrine, even a right one.

I encourage all to listen to this message.
