HINDU EXTREMISTS IN INDIA
CONTINUE TO HOLD PASTOR'S WIFE CAPTIVE

Hindu extremists who kidnapped the wife of a Christian pastor in India six weeks ago are still holding her captive. Local police officers have refused to make any attempt to find Manulaben Dinana, 23. They have also refused to question the kidnappers who were identified by eyewitnesses as members of a local group of Hindu extremists. Dinana is the wife of pastor Dharmesh Ninama, who himself has been assaulted twice by the same group—once in 2002 and again last year. Despite ongoing appeals to the director general of police, the State Human Rights Commission and State Women's Commission, officials have taken no action. Meanwhile, Dinana remains in captivity and her husband fears for her life.

"In the same way, the Spirit also helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we should. But the Spirit himself intercedes with groans too deep for words, and the one who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, for the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to God's will."
