Please be in prayer for me. Next week my pastor and several others from my church will be going on a missions trip to Uruguay, S. America. While gone, I will be in charge of preaching 2 services. Additionally, I am taking a week's vacation during this time, and plan on preaching at least 3 times, open-air, at UNC Charlotte. I don't know fully what I will be preaching, but I believe the Lord is going to have me speaking heavily on issues regarding the "shaking" that is going on with our economy.

Pray for me that I would make most of the opportunity before me, and that I would be bold for the Lord, both in church and in the streets. Pray that I have the strength to preach as much as I will (as I've never preached that much in such a short time span) and that my throat stays strong, and that the Lord fill my mouth with His words. Pray also, Lord willing, that He would open a door at UNC Charlotte with one of the Christian organizations there, so that perhaps they would invite me to come minister to fellow believers.

Also, if any of you live in the greater Charlotte area, and would like to join me in preaching the gospel open-air, e-mail me:

We'll talk about specific dates and times then.

Preach on, dear brother!
I think the topic of your preaching is right on!
Men's heart failing them for fear...
Everything they have ever known is falling, failing...

...but for the Hope we have.

If I had time to get over to Charlotte, I would! Unfortunately with the economic "slow-down" I'm bustin' my behind trying to land contracts to keep things rolling here.

But my prayers are with ya!

Just a reminder... please be in prayer for me this week. I will be doing more preaching than I have ever done in a short span of time, and will really need the Lord's grace to be with me.
