

Miracles that follow the plow :: Another Kritter in the Kingdom!*Another Kritter in the Kingdom!, on: 2008/10/27 8:44

Last night our 5 year old was saved! He had been asking a lot of questions lately... deep questions indicating to my wife and I that he was really thinking about what he's been taught. We are very careful to make sure our kids really understand salvation, and are not just trying to please us or do what they think we want them to do.

So last evening during our family devotion time he announced to us all that he wanted to accept God's gift of salvation! Praise the Lord!

Another Kritter in the Kingdom! It made my wife cry...

This is wonderful news bro Krispy. I loved the fact that you examined your kid to make sure they knew what this was about. A lot of parents don't do that sort of thing. I have a 3 year old a 2 year old and a new born that just came home today. For my two older ones I am teaching them Gods Law already so they can get a sense of the holiness of God and the perfection of the Law Psalm 19:7 and Romans 3:19. Great news I am pleased to hear it.

This always gladdens a parents' heart. And humbles one as well. May the child grow up to be a giant for the LORD!

Blessings,
