

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer request

Prayer request - posted by ChrisJD (), on: 2008/11/1 14:27

Hi everyone.

Please pray for me and a man that I just had a conversation with. He is a follower of the Watchtower. He became angry and ended our conversation.

Please pray for him, that God would take away any harm that I might have done. He seemed like he might have had bad experiences with Church before he started following the watchtower. Please ask God for His help for him.

And please pray for me. That God would forgive any wrong that I did or said and that I would have grace to be more patient and gentle with others like this. Or to avoid these conversations altogether if God would have that.

I'm sorry to take up space with this. I'm afraid that I am way to aggressive in how I speak with them and I really want to be full of patience and care for them.

Thank you.
