Hi all,

I was wondering if you could refer me to some straight gospel messages. Not Bible teaching for Christians but message s primarily aimed at those who are unsaved.

I don't really mind who is preaching wither it's David Wilkerson, Billy Graham in his early years, or someone else. Just s ome simple power gospel messages to immerse myself in.

Thanks,
Will

Hi crsschk,

Thanks for your reply. I have listened to and am familiar with each of those preachers. I was just interested to see if an yone was able to point me to some sermons/messages that were straight gospel messages.

I'm not sure if this will address what you're looking for but I couldn't help but think of Paul Washer when I read your post. I haven't listened to this I just started scrolling through his messages and thought maybe this would be a good one to sta rt with.

There is a message here by Greg Laurie called Immortality. It is pretty good

I would say the best I know of is "What is Real Christianity?" by brother Paul Washer
