Colin,

Zac Poonen's verse by verse studies are excellent. I hope you listen to them. If you sit down with the Windows media P layer and your Bible and take notes... goodness, there is so much that the Lord has opened to Bro. Poonen.

Hmmmhmmm,

I am doing my best to get caught up in Daniel so I can comment where you guys are in the Babylon to jerusalem thread!! ! i've learned sooooooo much.

God bless you both!!

Yes it is a great series of messages so full of truth and knowledge and encouragement to be an overcomer in these last days, i have posted very little recently in that thread but i will soon continue with the messages.

feel free to post even tho you only listend to one message, our sharing of thoughts is very edifying and i am very eager t o hear how God has spoken to them through this series, for me it is a MUST LISTEN and everyone should try make it th rough this series.

The only problem with this series is that it is so good that it is hard to stop listening. I ended up going straight through the whole thing.
