

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer request

Prayer request - posted by crsschk (), on: 2004/8/16 14:58

My mother-in-law Joanne has a rather difficult meeting coming up in about an hour (West Coast time, PST, it is now 12:00 noon)

Not proper to go into the details but it involves a potential dismissal. She also lost one of her cat's this morning.

So if you are led, please pray for wisdom and the Lords presence during this difficult time.

My thanks in advance.
