I haven't posted for a couple of years but its good to know that someone is lifting me up in my time of need.
I have to see God move in a powerful way in my life. I am praying for Gods hand in my job, my marriage and my spiritual life. More specifically..For work that the Lord would give me favor with my boss..my marriage that God would bless us financially in these hard times and that in my spiritual life..God would speak and teach me how to listen in prayer..please lift me up..
thanks

Just learn to TRUST HIM. :-)

Excellent to read the Sermon on the Mount together as well. Amen!

Martin Lloyd-Jones also did a wonderful commentary book on the Sermon on the Mount.

A brother said: "The Sermon on the Mount" is for TODAY ... Amen again!

LORD Bless you and yours.
With our prayers and His Promises to us all.
Jesus IS God - Thank GOD!

Praying.

Be encouraged as you seek to look into His face.

Look within too much and you'll be discouraged.
Look at others too much and you'll be disappointed.
Look around too much and you'll be distracted.
Look unto Jesus and you'll be confident and peaceful.
