Speaking out against another - posted by Mitz, on: 2009/6/16 14:33

You know I sat here and read these comments about people and how you felt that you know all the ins and outs of the Father. Let's remember where you came from and mercy and forgiveness (according to Jesus) is given to you in the measure you give out.

Please, if you feel your brother or sister has done wrong, Pray for them and remember though I speak with tongues of Angels and I have not love I'm just a crashing cymbal. The greatest of these is Love. God is Love. Again... the MEASURE you give in mercy is how the Father measures out how much he gives you.
