My name is Richard, I have been on this site for some time. I am a student at University of Central Oklahoma.

I am learning daily to live with Christ, as a young man amongst people of different beliefs, and trying to win them for Christ :-?

Hey Richard!

It is good to have you brother. I know it can be tough to talk to people our age (I'm 20) about God but, one of the great preachers on this site (Mr. Leonard Ravenhill), "the biggest testimony to have is your own life"...so whether you are gifted with the ability to speak well or not, your life can still be a wonderful ministry. Well anyway, Mr. Ravenhill expresses himself more proficiently than I do - "The judgment seat of Christ" and "What is your life" are a good start if you will hear them. Hope to see you soon, though it may be a while before you hear from me again...

In Christ

James
