Anyone else blessed by Todd Friel's ministry? I have learned so much by listening to his witnessing style.

yes i came across his stuff via this site & ray comforts site.

2 weeks ago we listened to his "how to witness manual" at our home group.

it went down with ome like a lead ballon, as all theve been told is God loves you he has a great plan for your life, ao in a way some were offended, but they have now seen that what is being preached is wrong.

so its up to them as to what they do with this revelation.

as for tim i like his style i have tried this myself on people even just saying have you ever told a lie gets some people. but i really praise God for such sites.

i have heard though that he may be a cessaionist? but i can live with that.

i can highly reccomend his audio files of his own witnessing encounters to see how he does it, but just let the Holy SPIRIT WORK through you

Lead balloon...that's how my introduction to using the law and Biblical evangelism went at my church.

I have just about every audio clip from Todd's website on my computer. One of the best is "How to be an On Fire Christi an."
