I have re-vamped the newsletter and got it to a point where I think it conveys information from the site and featured items well. I know it's a GREAT blessing to many that receive it and I am very encouraged in this way of blessing the body of Christ. I am confident that the new changes to the newsletter will reap more fruit, blessed be the name of the Lord.

Just sent out the latest issue of the newsletter (issue V) with the new design implemented. Would love any suggestions or feedback on it:

Like the new format, looks clean, curious about 'our' new doctrine though:

Quote:

-----We have already seen how Adam was endowed with unusual and astonishing abilities when he was created God.

Imagine their surprise when they find that we aren't really Mormons... :-P

Yea perhaps it would help if I provided the first chapter before the second.. its from this book:
(<http://www.worldinvisible.com/library/nee/5f00.0634/5f00.0634.c.htm>) The Latent Power of the Soul by Watchman Nee

The first chapter deals with Adam and the latent power God gives Him. Its an interesting read.

Think it was just a typo, amazing how one little word can make all the difference...
Or am I missing something...?
