

Miracles that follow the plow :: 20 Years Ago This Month

20 Years Ago This Month - posted by hulseys (), on: 2009/8/27 0:19

I just realized today that it was twenty years ago in August on a very hot day that I was staying inside in the air conditioning to avoid the heat. I was pretty bored so I picked up a bible that a friend had lent me and read it. My life has never been the same since that day in 1989.

Awesome! I look forward to the thought of 20 years walking with God, this December/january will be four years for me, I was regenerated and born again in a shoe aisle at Payless Shoes. Glory to God.
Joe

This would make a great thread to post anniversaries of our conversions, what do you think?

It's 27 years ago this month since God saved me.

Don't believe I have another 27 years left, but I want to do what I can for God with what time I have left.

God bless.

God saved me 30 Years ago, on August 27th, 1979.
I've failed Him, but He has never failed me.
Praise His Name.

Happy Birthday, Hulseys! May your faith remain childlike as you continue to mature "unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13)!

22 yrs ago in a Marine barracks at Camp Pendleton, Ca., kneeling down by my bunk after lights out I called on the Lord and He filled me with the Holy Ghost and with peace!

I was saved 4 years ago at a 48 hour prayer meeting, 12 hours before the birth of my second child. I felt the Lord come into me in a physical form of wind, over and over again for about 1/2 hour.

From that day forward I knew that I would serve the Lord every day of my life!
