

Scriptures and Doctrine :: Just Believe or Repentance & Faith?

Just Believe or Repentance & Faith? - posted by dougr777 (), on: 2009/9/2 8:52

Does salvation come by just "believing" in the Lord Jesus Christ or do we need "Repentance & Faith"?

Doug

Re: Just Believe or Repentance & Faith? - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2009/9/2 9:17

considering Jesus is God, and he died for our sins, and that he is the author and finisher of our faith i am convinced he was dead serious when he said "repent and believe" . There is no salvation if one is left out, true faith includes both.

Re: Just Believe or Repentance & Faith? - posted by Logic, on: 2009/9/2 9:28

Quote:

-----DougRenz wrote:

Does salvation come by just "believing" in the Lord Jesus Christ or do we need "Repentance & Faith"?

-----
Repentance is proof of your Belief. Therefore, if you don't repent, then you really don't believe.

Re: - posted by dougr777 (), on: 2009/9/2 9:50

I was reading the REPENTANCE book by Michael Pearl and in the last chapter he wrote that there is no where in God's word written "repent from sin", only "repent from bad works".

He went on to say that "repentance" from sin is Man's work of salvation and those on the other side justify it as "God preparing a mans heart to repent".

This verse:

"Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

Â—Acts 20:21

He went on to say that Repentance is not from sin but toward God (which I agree), but don't we need to turn from sin (an act of Repentance) to be saved and not just have faith? Don't the demons also believe and are going to hell?

This article here:

(<http://www.jesus-is-savior.com/Believer%27s%20Corner/Doctrines/repent.htm>) Repentance is NOT Forsaking One's S in

Here are the last few paragraphs from this article:

Quote:

-----It is false doctrine to make repenting of one's sins an event in itself to be saved. Again, repentance is not turning from one's sins; R epentance is turning to the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved from one's sins (Romans 4:5). Jack Chick, David Cloud, Ray Comfort, Aiden Tozer, John Ma cArthur and the Salvation Army all make repentance an isolated act by itself. The Bible stands against them for perverting the simplicity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The word "believe" is mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John; YET the word "repent" is not mentioned even ONCE!!! Clearly, the s inner who believes on Jesus as the Christ to forgive their sins has repented. False prophets today define repentance as merely turning from one's si ns. This misunderstanding of repentance has spawned multiple false gospels. Repentance is turning TO THE LORD from the guilt and condemnation of sin, to have those sins washed away by the precious literal blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18,19). To believe on the Lord Jesus Christ for forgive ness of one's sins is repentance. To merely turn from sin is nothing more than "turning over a new leaf," which is the false gospel of Perry Stone. True Biblical repentance means turning to Jesus Christ by faith to be forgiven of one's sins. The "turning" is not from the act of sin itself; but rather, TURNIN G TO THE LORD to be forgiven from the condemnation which sin has brought upon all mankind (Romans 3:19-23; 5:12). Lordship Salvationists have perverted the Gospel. They teach that repentance and faith are two separate steps to salvation, and that faith alone in Christ is insufficient to save any one unless they've turned from their sinful lifestyle. In sharp contrast, Genesis 15:6 tells us that Abram was justified by faith in the Lord. The Gospel o f John mentions the word "believe" 85 times without ever mentioning the word "repent" even once. This is because the person who has believed on th e Lord to be forgiven of their sins has repented of their sins. Salvation is turning to Jesus to be forgiven of one's sins; NOT turning from one's sins in o order to be forgiven by Jesus.

-----

I always thought that repentance is necessary for salvation... even if "repent from sin" is not in the Bible, can't we believe it is a Biblical Truth?

Doug

Re: - posted by dougr777 (), on: 2009/9/2 9:53

The other idea I read was that Repentance was written for those who are hypocrites and not the unsaved, and the "just believe" is for the ungodly/unsaved.

Quote:
----- Romans 4:5 says... "But to him that WORKETH NOT, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is COUNTED for righteousness."
-----

Re: - posted by Logic, on: 2009/9/2 10:13

Quote:
----- DougRenz wrote:
I was reading the REPENTANCE book by Michael Pearl and in the last chapter he wrote that there is no where in God's word written "repent from sin", only "repent from bad works".
-----

Is he saying that "bad works are not sin?"

Quote:
----- He went on to say that "repentance" from sin is Man's work of salvation
-----

What did the Scripture mean in Act 3:19, Act 8:22, Act 17:30, Act 26:20, Rev 2:5, Rev 2:16, Rev 2:21, Rev 2:22, Rev 3:3 when

Quote:
----- This verse:
"Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." —Acts 20:21

He went on to say that Repentance is not from sin but toward God (which I agree), but don't we need to turn from sin (an act of Repentance) to be saved and not just have faith? Don't the demons also believe and are going to hell?

It is FROM sin AND toward God.

The "from sin" is implied when it says "toward God"
Therefore, he is wrong, it does say that Repentance is from sin also.

Re: - posted by Heydave (), on: 2009/9/2 10:20

Quote:
----- I was reading the REPENTANCE book by Michael Pearl and in the last chapter he wrote that there is no where in God's word written "repent from sin", only "repent from bad works".
-----

This man who is calling others a false teacher, is clearly teaching false doctrine.

Mark 1:15 Jesus said repent AND believe the gospel (two separate things).

Matthew 9:13 Jesus said He came to call SINNERS to repentance (repent from what? Being sinners!)

Luke 24:47 Jesus said 'Repentance and remission of sins should be preached to all nations...'

Repentance is clearly turning FROM sin and TO Christ. Faith involves both and to try to say that you are believing (trusting and relying) on Christ without turning from your old life of sin is crazy.

Sometimes the bible describes the act of repentance without using the word 'repentance' as this passage shows...

1 John 3:4-6 'Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness.

And you know that He (Jesus) was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him is no sin.

Whoever abides in Him does not (continue in) sin. Whoever (continues to) sin has neither seen Him or known Him.'

Re: Just Believe or Repentance & Faith? - posted by trxx (), on: 2009/9/2 11:35

for "DougRenz"

"Just Believe or Repentance & Faith?

Does salvation come by just "believing" in the Lord Jesus Christ or do we need "Repentance & Faith"?"

A sermon I've always appreciated is "The First Word of the Gospel" by J Edwin Orr. I think that it will help you to understand and the answer to your question. You can find it on this page <https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/viewcat.php?cid=11&min=60&orderby=titleA&show=20> the second last sermon.

Re: - posted by hmmhmm (), on: 2009/9/2 11:50

why is not Jesus words enough? why need we other mens words? if it were a very obscure and hard passage to understand I can see need for consulting others.... but Jesus said "repent and believe"

Re: Just Believe or Repentance & Faith? - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/2 12:24

As the other responders have pointed out, faith without repentance is not faith at all. If we believe in God, then we must believe his teachings. His Word and His Spirit will lead us into repentance IF WE TRULY BELIEVE.

Regarding repentance from sin:

Quote:

-----Repentance is NOT Forsaking One's Sin
-----

This statement/title is false teaching and intended to mislead. Our God is a Holy God. He is the exact opposite of sinful, like light is the opposite of darkness. When one repents TOWARDS God, he automatically turns AWAY from sin. This is one of the clearest teachings in the Bible.

I don't see the need to belabor this point.

Re: - posted by onlyHIS, on: 2009/9/2 13:47

one needs to read the entire book to understand what Michael Pearl said. He did not do a false teaching, he said that repentance is to GOD, not from something. His book has every verse on repentance clearly expounded on. One should not call him a false teacher because one line of his book was quoted here without the rest of his explanation to go with it.

If we REPENT TO God- we will turn away from sin- yes. But that is not what repentance means, it is a result of it.

Re: - posted by dougr777 (), on: 2009/9/2 13:53

Nobody called him a false teacher. I actually like most of his teachings. I am trying to understand this theological understanding of faith, repentance and salvation.

Doug

Re: - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/2 14:33

Quote:

onlyHIS wrote:

one needs to read the entire book to understand what Michael Pearl said. He did not do a false teaching, he said that repentance is to GOD, not from something. His book has every verse on repentance clearly expounded on. One should not call him a false teacher because one line of his book was quoted here without the rest of his explanation to go with it.

If we REPENT TO God- we will turn away from sin- yes. But that is not what repentance means, it is a result of it.

repentance&#8194;

—noun

1. deep sorrow, compunction, or contrition for a past sin, wrongdoing, or the like.
2. regret for any past action.

Origin:

1300—50; ME repentaunce < OF repentance. See repent 1, -ance

Synonyms:

1. contriteness, penitence, remorse.
2. sorrow, qualms.

Antonyms:

1. impenitence.

The phrase "repentance to God" means "deep sorrow, compunction, or contrition for a past sin and turning to God". The author did a shortcut.

Please enough of semantics.

If he is not a false teacher, then he is dangerously close to being one because it appears he would have people believe that turning away from sin is not a necessary component of salvation.

Re: - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/2 15:07

Quote:

-----This verse: "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." —Acts 20:21

This verse was rendered in KJV 17th century English. The more precise wording in the modern English that we can all understand easily is:

Ac 20:21 I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus. (NIV)

Wittingly or unwittingly, the author is misreading the meaning of the verse as rendered in 17th century English.

Re: - posted by Heydave (), on: 2009/9/2 16:21

Quote:
-----One should not call him a false teacher because one line of his book was quoted here without the rest of his explanation to go with it.
-----

Unfortunately it appears that it is Michael Pearl who calls people false teachers.

Quote:
----- Jack Chick, David Cloud, Ray Comfort, Aiden Tozer, John MacArthur and the Salvation Army all make repentance an isolated act by itself. The Bible stands against them for perverting the simplicity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
-----

To accuse Ray Comfort or Tozer (or anyone else who teaches we should turn from sin) of not teaching faith in Jesus Christ is nonsense and worthy of our rejection. I would reject the book on this point alone, even if he had a point of view to emphasise because he is clearly unbalanced in his own self opinion.

Re: - posted by onlyHIS, on: 2009/9/2 17:34

Michael Pearl did not write that quote about Ray Comfort and Tozer. Would you like to share your source of that article Doug Renz? it is not Michael Pearl.

I will stand that one should not accuse someone of being a false teacher when you are getting one line of his teaching here. He wrote an entire book, and you are getting one quote of his here, along with someone's interpretation on here.

Re: - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/2 18:12

I clicked on the link provided and found that the author of the article is one David J. Stewart

Quote:
-----Repentance is NOT Forsaking One's Sins!
By David J. Stewart

"Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." —Acts 20:21

Repentance is not turning from (i.e., forsaking) one's sins, nor even being willing to turn from one's sins; Repentance is turning to the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved from one's sins (Romans 4:5). Salvation is receiving; NOT giving. Eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 5:15;6:23), paid for by Jesus' precious literal blood (1st Peter 1:18,19). To be saved we simply need to come as a guilty sinner to Jesus Christ to have our sins washed away by His redeeming blood (1st John 1:7). Salvation is turning to Jesus to be forgiven of one's sins; NOT turning from one's sins in order to be forgiven by Jesus.
-----

His handling of the verse from Acts 20:21 is faulty, as mentioned in preceding posts.

Acts 20:21 I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must TURN TO GOD IN REPENTANCE and have faith in our Lord Jesus. (NIV)

Re: - posted by roaringlamb (), on: 2009/9/2 18:24

The Greek word for "repent" is ὁ μετανοεῖς; (metanoeeis); it means "to change one's mind".

The Gospel is news that confronts someone. It is the good news that Christ has died for sinners and has made a way of peace with God.

In order to change one's mind about this is to forsake ALL hope in one's self righteousness, or one's works to achieve peace with God. It is not only turning from BAD works, but even our GOOD works as a means of justification, or rightness with God.

Of course, repentance without faith is not what leads to salvation, neither is faith without repentance. BUT, the new birth produces faith and repentance in the sinner. It is not the cause of new birth. God shines the light of the glory of Christ into the heart, God gives a heart of flesh in place of a heart of stone, and this new heart longs for Christ and grieves that it has so offended One who is so loving and good.

From day one of the Christian life to the day we are glorified, the true Christian lives a life of repentance and faith, it's not a one and done type of thing at all.

Re: - posted by roaringlamb (), on: 2009/9/2 18:32

I wanted to add a point to clarify.

When I said this-
it's not a one and done type of thing at all

I did not mean that justification is a process; justification is a one time legal declaration based on faith in Christ's work.

Sanctification on the other hand is a process which is worked out in us by continual repentance and faith.

I'm sure we would all admit (if we're honest; and lying is a sin) that there are things we do and don't do each day that would give God the right to condemn us. But thanks be to God that Christ has borne our wrath in our place so we might be welcomed in His place as if His righteousness were ours!

Re: - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/2 18:57

Quote:
-----by roaringlamb on 2009/9/2 15:24:52 The Greek word for "repent" is μετανοεω (met-anoe#333); it means "to change one's mind". The Gospel is news that confronts someone. It is the good news that Christ has died for sinners and has made a way of peace with God. In order to change one's mind about this is to forsake ALL hope in one's self righteousness, or one's works to achieve peace with God. It is not only turning from BAD works, but even our GOOD works as a means of justification, or rightness with God. Of course, repentance without faith is not what leads to salvation, neither is faith without repentance. BUT, the new birth produces faith and repentance in the sinner. It is not the cause of new birth. God shines the light of the glory of Christ into the heart, God gives a heart of flesh in place of a heart of stone, and this new heart longs for Christ and grieves that it has so offended One who is so loving and good. From day one of the Christian life to the day we are glorified, the true Christian lives a life of repentance and faith, it's not a one and done type of thing at all.
-----

Very well said, together with your clarification on justification.

Re: - posted by poet (), on: 2009/9/3 0:38

Matt 3:1-2 1 In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, 2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Matt 4:17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Repent: Metanoeo: 3340 metanoevw Metanoeo (met-an-o-eh'-o);
Word Origin: Greek, Verb
from (3326) and (3539)

to change one's mind, i.e. to repent to change one's mind for better, heartily to amend with abhorrence of one's past sins

Notice the verb.

Repent is mentioned 21 separate times in the new testament.

Believe: Pisteuo: 4100 pisteuvw Pisteuo (pist-yoo'-o);
Word Origin: Greek, Verb

from (4102)

to think to be true, to be persuaded of, to credit, place confidence in
of the thing believed to credit, have confidence in a moral or religious reference used in the NT of the conviction and trust to which a man is impelled by a certain inner and higher prerogative and law of soul to trust in Jesus or God as able to aid either in obtaining or in doing something: saving faith 1bc) mere acknowledgment of some fact or event: intellectual faith to entrust a thing to one, i.e. his fidelity to be intrusted with a thing

Faith:Pistis: 4102 pivstiÃŸ Pistis (pis'-tis);

Word Origin: Greek, Noun Feminine

from (3982)

conviction of the truth of anything, belief; in the NT of a conviction or belief respecting man's relationship to God and divine things, generally with the included idea of trust and holy fervour born of faith and joined with it relating to God

the conviction that God exists and is the creator and ruler of all things, the provider and bestower of eternal salvation through Christ

relating to Christ

a strong and welcome conviction or belief that Jesus is the Messiah, through whom we obtain eternal salvation in the kingdom of God

the religious beliefs of Christians belief with the predominate idea of trust (or confidence) whether in God or in Christ, springing from faith in the same fidelity, faithfulness

the character of one who can be relied on

IN my opinion, we must repent,"be sorry, and decide that our way of doing is wrong and God's way is right, and we set our hearts to do it God's way"....

Believe in Him, "Jesus" not only that he exists, but believe or trust the fact He is capable to not only forgive your sins but also transform you from a sinner who practices sinful behavior, to someone who is not only sorry for the sinful behavior but to someone who is growing in maturity and not doing the things that will cast the disobedient into the lake of fire for eternity.

Faith: this is interesting, but faithfulness is something God always is and something we're striving for. to have Faith in God is two fold, one is to be assured he will do what he says he will do, but having faith in God means also we are faithful to him as well.

If we were not faithful, we were not really believing in Him either, if we were not faithful or following him, we were not really repenting or having a repentant attitude all the time.

My thoughts.

Re: , on: 2009/9/3 2:51

God only turns from His wrath if sinners turn from their sinning:

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (2 Chronicles 7:14).

“Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions, so iniquity shall not be your ruin... Cast away from you all of your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die”

... For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves and live ye" (Ezekiel 18:30-32).

"Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon" (Isaiah 55:7).

"He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy" (Proverbs 28:13).

"Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee" (Acts 8:22).

"Then Peter said unto them, Repent.... For the remission of sins..." (Acts 2:38).

"Repent, ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out..." (Acts 3:19).

"Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life" (Acts 11:18).

The Bible talks about "repentance to salvation..." (2 Corinthians 7:10).

When the Bible talks about justification by works, it is not talking about repentance preachers, it is talking about Judaizers who say that you must be circumcised and obey the Torah (Acts 15:1; Rom. 2:25-29; Rom. 3:28-30; Rom. 4:4-10; 1 Cor. 7:19; Gal. 2:3-7; Gal. 5:2-4). Read these passages in context and you see that Paul's point was that Gentiles do not need to be circumcised or obey the Torah. He was not saying that you can be forgiven without repenting of your sins!

Consider how Paul's ministry was to call Gentiles to repentance (Acts 26:20) and Paul preached repentance (Acts 17:30-31)

"Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God" 1 Cor. 7:19

"For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, not uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love." Gal. 5:6

"and though I have all faith... and have not love, I am nothing" 1 Cor. 13:2

"What doth is profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? Can faith save him?... Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone... ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only." James 2:14, 17, 24

Re: , on: 2009/9/3 23:34

The Bible warns about another Gospel, another Jesus, another faith. The true Gospel requires that men choose to repent of their sins. Jesus called men to repent of their sins. Living faith rejects sin. Those who say that you do not need to forsake your sins to be saved are preaching another Gospel, another Jesus, and another faith. That might sound harsh, but a message void of repentance cannot save. A Gospel that does not require repentance cannot save. A Jesus who does not demand repentance is fake. A faith that does not include repentance will only condemn. A preacher who says you do not need to repent is a preacher who will help you go to hell. Beware of these preachers!

Re: - posted by jimp, on: 2009/9/4 8:05

hi, Jesus took care of the sin question on the cross... to say a lost man can turn from sin is to say that man did not need this sacrifice.. the repent we must have is turning our lives over to the Lordship of Christ from the lordship of self...read romans 6.7.8 we must walk in the Spirit not in the flesh...humility is gained by understanding what Jesus did on the cross for us..HE is the saviour..jimp

Re: - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/4 12:06

Brothers:

truefaithsav said:

"The true Gospel requires that men choose to repent of their sins. Jesus called men to repent of their sins. Living faith rejects sin. Those who say that you do not need to forsake your sins to be saved are preaching another Gospel, another Jesus, and another faith."

and then jimp said:

"Jesus took care of the sin question on the cross... to say a lost man can turn from sin is to say that man did not need this sacrifice.. the repent we must have is turning our lives over to the Lordship of Christ from the lordship of self.."

This is like arguing: Which came first, the chicken or the egg? Too much Christian energy is wasted in unproductive quibbling over little things. What is important is that, no matter which of the above arguments hold true, man will turn away from sin if he has true faith and accepts the lordship of Christ. Should we belabor the point of which occurred first? Is it at all necessary? All we need to do is agree that it is faith in God that makes all these possible. Does this faith come from the man or is it provided by God as part of his grace? I don't need to know the answer to that as long as faith happens, repentance happens, and rebirth happens.

Re: - posted by imnowhere, on: 2009/9/4 12:16

Quote:
-----This is like arguing: Which came first, the chicken or the egg? Too much Christian energy is wasted in unproductive quibbling over little things.
-----

Does God see the glory of sinful man's salvation as a 'little thing'?

Unfortunately we have to think about God in this and not just our own opinions. Does God care how salvation comes about? Does He care who receives the glory for His crowning work? Does he mind when sinful men take the credit and glory for His most treasured work?

You said you don't understand or know which came first. Best to look into God's word a little more before teaching hundreds of God's people that He doesn't care who receives the glory.

You might not care. But He does.

Is 42:8 I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another...

Re: - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/4 12:25

Dear imnowhere,

This is the second time that you have tried to put words in my mouth.

Quote:
-----You said you don't understand or know which came first. Best to look into God's word a little more before teaching hundreds of God's people that He doesn't care who receives the glory.
-----

I did not say this, and my post is right above for all to see. Like I said before, I'm not into playing games with you.

Re: - posted by Logic, on: 2009/9/4 12:27

Quote:
-----jimp wrote:
hi, Jesus took care of the sin question on the cross... to say a lost man can turn from sin is to say that man did not need this sacrifice
-----
The fact that man is not supposed to sin implies that he is able not to.

The sacrifice (Atonement) is not so that man may be able to turn from his sin, but it is so that he may be forgiven from his past sins which were able to be avoided in the first place.

IF Jesus took care of sin on the cross, then you have universal salvation. Because if all sin was forgiven on the cross, then those who reject Christ to their death would be forgiven.

Jesus only took care of sin on the cross only if one turns from sin. If one does not turn from sin, it proves that he never had faith to begin with.

Re: - posted by Logic, on: 2009/9/4 12:37

Quote:
-----imnowhere wrote:

Does He care who receives the glory for His crowning work? Does he mind when sinful men take the credit and glory for His most treasured work?
Is 42:8 I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another...
-----
Sounds as if you imply that repentance from sin gives glory to man.

Luke 17:9 Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not.
:10 So likewise you, when you shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

Doing a duty is never anything to boast in.
to boast in duty would be like saying, "hey, I'm so proud of my self, I did what I'm supposed to do. Ain't I great"

The command to repent is all mankind's duty:
Act 17:30 And the times of this ignorance God overlooked; but now commands all men everywhere to repent:

Question:
How could all men everywhere repent if they can not until Jesus first gives them the ability?

Remember, commanding an impossibility is sadistic, if not tyrannical; especially if one is punished for not doing that which they can not do.

Re: - posted by imnowhere, on: 2009/9/4 12:38

Quote:
-----Does this faith come from the man or is it provided by God as part of his grace? I don't need to know the answer to that as long as faith happens, repentance happens, and rebirth happens.
-----

You think this is a game?
You're telling hundreds or thousands of people online that it is 'a small thing', that it 'doesn't matter' how salvation comes about? Will you preach that sermon on the other side?

You're right it's not a game.

Re: - posted by imnowhere, on: 2009/9/4 12:46

Quote:

-----Question:How could all men everywhere repent if they can not untill Jesus first gives them the ability?

Remember, commanding an impossibility is sadistic, if not tyrannical; especially if one is punished for not doing that which they can not do.

So then it was sadistic of the Lord to command a dead Lazarus to come out of the tomb, or for God to command perfect obedience in word, thought and deed of Israel for 1400 years without the power of the Holy Spirit indwelling them?

And I guess the one that represents God in Matt 18 is 'sadistic, tyrannical' etc for commanding the man that owed him the unpayable debt to pay.

My friend, it's not the ability to pay that makes a command virtuous. God can and has demanded what we cannot pay. That is why we come to him empty, without boast, even thanking God for the gifts of faith and repentance.

If you don't see this now, as George Whitefield said, you will on the other side.

By the way, the reason we are unprofitable servants is because we don't bring anything God needs, not because we by our service deny works while maintaining our will was needed by God. We rather have been made willing in the day of His power. It is God who is working in us to WILL AND TO DO His good pleasure.

The glory is all God's.

If you think that is tyrannical and sadistic so be it. But you might change your mind one day like I have.

Re: - posted by imnowhere, on: 2009/9/4 12:59

Maybe it's just easiest to look at the bible that speaks to this specific question...

John 1:12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 .Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Rom 9:16 .So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

Re: - posted by imnowhere, on: 2009/9/4 13:01

Quote:

-----Sounds as if you imply that repentance from sin gives glory to man.

If men take all the credit for it, then yes, it does.

Re: - posted by Leo_Grace, on: 2009/9/4 13:25

Dear imnowhere.

I will humor you one last time by answering your last post to me:

Quote:

-----Quote: Does this faith come from the man or is it provided by God as part of his grace? I don't need to know the answer to that as long as faith happens, repentance happens, and rebirth happens.

You think this is a game?

You're telling hundreds or thousands of people online that it is 'a small thing', that it 'doesn't matter' how salvation comes about? Will you preach that sermon on the other side? You're right it's not a game.

First of all, you're contradicting yourself. First you accuse me of thinking that salvation is a game, then in the same paragraph you say, "You're right it's not a game."

To clarify, I do not think our salvation is a game. In fact, it is so important and so precious that I would rather enjoy my salvation, worship my God who gave it to me by grace, and focus on doing His will, rather than quibble with you on the step-by-step approach taken by God. It is enough for me to know that He saved me. I would rather work out my sanctification than nitpick God's methodology (which no man can fully understand anyway).

And yes, I'm trying to tell all the Christians online that it is better to live out your Christianity than to dissect it. I truly believe that some theologians have gone too far in trying to reduce Christianity into an academic exercise.

Job 11:7-9 "Can you fathom the mysteries of God? Can you probe the limits of the Almighty? They are higher than the heavens—what can you do? They are deeper than the depths of the grave—what can you know? Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea."

Re: - posted by Logic, on: 2009/9/4 13:44

Quote:

-----imnowhere wrote:

Quote:

-----Question: How could all men everywhere repent if they can not until Jesus first gives them the ability?

Remember, commanding an impossibility is sadistic, if not tyrannical; especially if one is punished for not doing that which they can not do.

-----
So then it was sadistic of the Lord to command a dead Lazarus to come out of the tomb

-----
Know, that was love.

After Jesus called him, Lazarus was able.

Quote:

-----or for God to command perfect obedience in word, thought and deed of Israel for 1400 years without the power of the Holy Spirit indwelling them?

-----
I didn't say anything about the Holy Spirit not indwelling them.

For anyone could have the Holy Spirit.

Read Num 11:25-29

The Scriptures never say that no one could have the Spirit.

The Following tells us that Israel was able to do what is commanded, even (as you say) without the power of the Holy Spirit indwelling them:

Romans 9:30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

:31 But Israel, who followed after the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness.
:32 Why? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling stone;
They were judged because they could have done what the Gentiles did, but were disobediant.

This is what the Scriptures call "The Rest" (Jesus is our rest) which they were disobediant of.
Hebrews 3:18 And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
:19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.
Hebrews 4:1 Let us therefore fear, lest, although a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should see m to come short of it.
:2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them (the "gospel" which was preached to them was the "promise of rest" which is also preached to us) but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

disobedience implies ability.
Punishment is never from diability, unless you brought the disability upon yourself.

Quote:
-----And I guess the one that represents God in Matt 18 is 'sadistic, tyrannical' etc for commanding the man that owed him the unpayable debt to pay.
-----

The man with the unpayable debt, brought his debt upon himself.
He was responcible to not get in to debt and not barrow when he knew that he would not be able to.
If he was carfull, he would not have went in to so much debt.

Quote:
-----My friend, it's not the ability to pay that makes a command virtuous. God can and has demanded what we cannot pay
-----
We can pay. And we will pay (the payment is eternity), if we are not forgiven.

The command was to not sin (and go into debt from it), we were never suposed to sin, but we did. We did that which we were able not to do.

Quote:
-----That is why we come to him empty, without boast, even thanking God for the gifts of faith and repentance.
-----
faith and repentance can not be gifts.
Otherwise God is directly responcible for the unrepentance & faithlessness of the world, because He has not given the requirement.

You criminalize God.

Quote:
-----If you don't see this now, as George Whitefield said, you will on the other side.
-----
No one will see that which is not true.

Quote:
-----By the way, the reason we are unprofitable servants is because we don't bring anything God needs.
-----
No, it is because we do only that which is required, which is what the text says.
Do not add to it.

Quote:
----- not because we by lip service deny works while maintaining our will was needed by God.
-----

If we do not maintaining our will being needed by God, that implies God saves unwilling people who hate Him.

Mankind must first be willing and love Him inorder to be reconciled to Him.

No one ever has eternal life until they Love God, knowing that He was loving them from day one.

You imply that one has eternal life before they love Him and are willing.

Quote:

-----We rather have been made willing in the day of His power.

God does not make people to love Him and be willing by force (which you imply "in the day of His power"), for that is not love.

True love persuades, it never forces by power.

Quote:

-----The glory is all God's.

There is great glory in a willing heart. There is no glory in an unwilling heart which is forced "in the day of His power"

Quote:

-----If you think that is tyrannical and sadistic so be it. But you might change your mind one day like I have.

Nope, the truth will stand, I will not.

By the way, when you changed your mind, you clearly didn't think it out logically.

Knowing this, mankind will not be condemned for that which they could not do, but could and refused.

Mankind are not victims, or disabled, but are criminals that were able to not be criminals.

If one could not avoid being a criminal, there would be no guilt on his part.

Re: - posted by imnowhere, on: 2009/9/4 13:53

I think I'll acknowledge God rather than lean on my own understanding.

I can't take near that amount of credit for my walk with God.

Re: - posted by Logic, on: 2009/9/4 13:55

Quote:

-----

imnowhere wrote:

Quote:

-----Sounds as if you imly that repentance from sin gives glory to man.

If men take all the credit for it, then yes, it does.

He take to credit for Jesus choosing to forgive our sins.

All the Golry goes to Him.

How/why would God forgive those who do not want Him or love Him, not to mention those who refuse to put their faith in /on what He has said & done with repentance to prove the faith.

Re: , on: 2009/9/4 23:59

God promises grace and mercy to those who forsake their sin. God never promised grace and mercy for those who continue in their sins. For them He only promises wrath. A man is either under God's wrath or under God's mercy. Those who are in their sins are under God's wrath. Those who forsook their sins and are in Christ are under God's mercy.

The atonement of Christ did not make anyone saved without repentance. The atonement of Christ makes it possible for everyone to be saved, if they repent and believe. The atonement makes salvation available, but salvation does not become actual until there is genuine conversion.

In every war there is the Victor and the defeated. Those who are defeated are in a state of humility. The Victor is in the state of glory. In a war, each opponent tries to bring the other to surrender. When the one surrenders, the other gets the glory.

A sinner is at war with God. God brings us to surrender. It is our choice to surrender our war against God. As the defeated, we are in a state of humility. Since we are the ones who choose to surrender, God gets the glory. It was because of Him and His influence that brought us to surrender. If it wasn't for Him, we would have continued to wage our war against Him and His law. God is glorified when men freely choose to turn to Him.

Think also how great God must be, if free moral beings choose to surrender and serve Him! His nature and character must be truly excellent if men freely choose to serve Him. God is glorified when men choose to freely serve Him.

Re: - posted by jimp, on: 2009/9/5 3:09

hi, altars are places of sacrifice... death to our self while we receive the zoe life of Christ. if a man says he is without sin he is a liar and the truth..JESUS is not in him. the word says you have NOT chosen Me I have chosen you. if one walks in the Spirit he pleases God and if he walks in the flesh he still has the sentence of death on him.shall we sin GOD FORBID, but if we do we have an advocate with the father.. rest in His finished work. jimp remember that there were 2 trees in the garden ...one was the knowledge of good and evil the other was the tree of LIFE... Jesus

Re: Just Believe or Repentance & Faith? - posted by anonymity, on: 2009/9/5 8:49

Doug,

we put our trust in Christ
then by His grace He transforms us

we come to Him saying here is my life but then He must take it and give us the power to actually give it and not just decide to give it but actually give it in a walked out way belief and faith have a way of coming off as a mere intellectual understanding trust however is that which believes with the heart and surrenders

we don't get ourselves right
we surrender
then He takes over

if we had to get ourselves perfect before God before coming to God
by "repenting" (false interpretation of) then no one could come for all are slaves of sin

it might be said believe and repent since we cant change our lives til after we believe then having the Gospels grace to do so or possibly that repent and believe are not one before the other but together at once for when we believe the fruit will simultaneously be repentance

the scriptures also say repent and be baptized for the remission of sins however we read later that baptism does not save us and it merely water it is the true spiritual baptism that does into Christ
so also as it says repent
that repentance no more saves us
then does baptism
repentance and baptism are both a result of faith/ trust/ belief

i have spoken to some cultists like watchtowerites, or mormons, or others they will say faith without works is dead
so therefore we must do works to be saved
i say i agree that we must do works to be saved but those works do not save us but they will be there if we are truly saved
if we have faith the result will be works they then often understand for they sincerely believed trying not to be hypocrites and teach faith without works
but when i explain it they understand works don't save you
but you will have works if you are saved
works don't save you
but if you have true faith which alone saves
then the result will be works

if we could
"repent" in that way
then we could make ourselves right before God then we could earn our way to heaven so maybe some just repent from the get go and never need Jesus' blood
this would be the erroneous outcome

it is hard since the 2 are so close together there is a sure distinction though we have faith by which we are saved by the grace of Christ

then after that works result which do not save us
but will certainly be there is we are saved

this repentance therefore cannot refer to changing ones life to perfection morally but to surrendering ones heart
saying you can have my life
now take it
not saying I am now perfect and will now come before you righteous
but saying Jesus
I am ready to do it your way
now here is all of me
take it by Your power
and give me grace to give it
it is our choice
it is His power
it is our surrender
it is His transforming grace
He gives us a new heart
we become children of God
we are born again
with a new nature
then that new nature
can now live a life repented from the old only the Holy Spirit can kill the flesh only the new man can live a new life
only the good new man can live a good life
Do you agree?

Re: - posted by dougr777 (), on: 2009/9/7 10:37

This discussion has been very helpful! I would recommend everybody to read every page of Michael Pearl's Repentance book. Faith preceeds Repentance... Repentance is towards God.

Doug

Re: - posted by elharris, on: 2009/9/8 15:28

LOGIC said: Know, that was love.
After Jesus called him, Lazarus was able.

I GOT THAT!

THANK YOU!

Re: - posted by rnieman, on: 2009/9/8 16:30

Quote:

-----Doug Renz stated Faith preceeds Repentance... Repentance is towards God.
-----

Then Mark 1:15 -should be retranslated believe(faith) then repent??? Repentance towards God is right, and when doing so, one turns his back on sin, and then he is called to believe. I have read the entire repentance book by michael pearl, and I thought it had some good points but concluded in error.( Pearl thinks that we do not have a biblical right to call unb elievers to repent and turn from their sin prior to conversion, instead he states that we are to preach just believe) As we see in Mark, Jesus is telling them to repent 1st(turn from sin and unbelief towards God and then 2nd believe( faith). Let me give you an example of how Mark 1:15 can play out. Your out evangelizing in the street and you come across a drug addict, and you tell him to repent, forsake his drugs, other sin, etc. and believe the gospel. Does that drug addict have the ability to acutally forsake his drugs, answer yes in the short and no in the long haul(by the way I speak from personal experience), his repentance will bare fruit(John 8:32-36) until he is converted. In other words his departure from his addiction,etc., will become evidence of geniune faith. When the drug addict repents(turns from drugs, unbelief, etc.) towards God in Faith(believes the gospel and surrenders). His soul is converted and he is set free indeed. Explained another way, repentance unto life is the intial repentance turning from sin to God, while the fruit of repentance happens following conversion(showing evidence of repentance unto life) and by God's Grace we will all keep with producing the fruit of repentance throughout our lives.