May I ask why?

I kind of like them. It saves me from clicking on many that I have no interest in. Some folks use a clever subject title just to get people to read their same old favorite pet doctrine.

they distort the screen layout for me - posted by White_Stone (), on: 2009/10/6 11:16

Must be the fact that I do not have a widescreen monitor and run a screen resolution of only 1024 x 768.

Guess I must get over it since I am the one who is out of step.
