

Devotional Thoughts :: Yours Alone*Yours Alone - posted by Tonda, on: 2009/11/4 13:10

Oh God, I want to be Yours and Yours alone
To Glorify and Magnify the King upon His throne
Every thought, every word, every deed...
Let it spring forth from good ground
Let it come from good seed

Let all that I am Praise my Lord
With every fiber of my being, let me seek Always to honor Thy Holy name
Thy Kingdom Come, Thy will be done
It's not about me, but the Glory of Thy Son

May Your will be that which I cherish
Let all that is of me and my flesh... let my own will perish

"Here am I, Crush me"
Lord, you know this is my plea
Bring me to the end of me
So that, all that is left will be completely of Thee

According to Your mercy and according to Your grace
Destroy my pride, conceit, and selfishness
My slothfulness, my apathy
Shatter my vanity, greed, and arrogance
Grant unto me, Christ Jesus, deliverance from my ignorance and take my foolishness away

Sovereign Lord, If You must...grind me into dust
Break up this fallow ground
Under the full force of Your righteous plow
Do whatever it takes to bring forth fruit from this stubborn clay

Oh God, I want to be Yours and Yours alone
To Glorify and Magnify the King upon His throne
Every thought, every word, every deed...
Let it spring forth from good ground
Let it come from good seed

-Tonda Canterbury