

Miracles that follow the plow :: Please pray for my son*Please pray for my son - posted by MaryJane, on: 2010/1/5 12:18

Please pray for my son if you feel the Lords leading. He is going through a very difficult time right now and is in need of much prayer. Please just pray that Gods hand would be in this situation.

God Bless and thank you thank you for your prayers. there are times when things come at us that are completely beyond our control, right now my son is learning what it means to just trust everything to the Lord. In this time I pray his faith will grow.

God is so faithful that even in these times when we can not always see why things happen as they do, I know that the H e is here with us.

Thank you again for your prayers.

God bless

Father,
Please touch Mary Janes Son.
Work this out for his good, and Your Glory.
Please touch Mj, also.
In Jesus Name.
