Matt was taken seriously ill just before Christmas..I don't know the full details, but i think he either fainted or fited.. Doctors discovered a tumor,they operate and Doctors have confirmed the tumor is malignant, He is now under going Radiation and chemotherapy..

He seems to be in good spirits, and even preached last Sunday (think it could of been a video feed)He has been a great inspiration in this obviously stressful time for himself and his family...

You can keep up with info at <http://fm.thevillagechurch.net/blog/pastors/>

Please pray..
