

Scriptures and Doctrine :: History of church worship?

History of church worship?, on: 2010/1/20 9:28

How did Jesus worship in the local churches in his area? As the Catholics/Orthodox as we see them today or something totally different?

Where did he worship if not in local churches and what did Jesus think about how the churches worshipped back when He was still here? Did He accept them as they were and were we to follow them today?

How did the post pentacostal churches worship? As what we see with the Catholics/Orthodox before the Roman Empire calapse?

Re: History of church worship? - posted by enid, on: 2010/1/20 12:37

'So He came to Nazareth where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.'

Luke 4v16

Re: - posted by Silo, on: 2010/1/20 12:45

Enid,

So Jesus stood up and read? No worship?

Re: - posted by chrtsm, on: 2010/1/20 15:29

To get a better understanding of worship, we must turn to Romans 12:1 & 2. This is the worship that God our Father is looking for.

"I APPEAL to you therefore, brethren, and beg of you in view of the mercies of God, to make a decisive dedication of your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy (devoted, consecrated) and well pleasing to God, which is your reasonable (rational, intelligent) service and spiritual worship.

Do not be conformed to this world (this age), , but be transformed (changed) by the renewal of your mind , so that you may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God, even the thing which is good and acceptable and perfect ." (Amplified)

Hope this helps.

Re: History of church worship? - posted by twayneb (), on: 2010/1/23 18:18

I have watched messianic Jewish believers worship God. We have a local messianic pentecostal church near my home that I have visited several times. They have strong ties to Israel, and are very culturally Jewish. The worship is beautiful . It is joyful, incorporates a lot of dance, and what seems to be traditional Jewish musical styles as well as much more modern American styles. I know all things change, but I would believe that the Jewish culture has probably changed less than most. My guess is that it was probably much like this. Remember the party when Jesus rode into the city of Jerusalem before His crucifixion?

Then again, worship is our expression of love and adoration of Him. I guess it is expressed in our own uniqueness. But, my guess is that it is looked a quite a bit like Jewish Christians worship today.

Re: - posted by beatenpath, on: 2010/1/23 20:32

i would think Jesus worshipped like how the Jews worship today. this is a good question though.