Please pray for my mom if you feel the Lord leading you to. She has to have surgery on her arm or she will loose all use of it. Things are a bit complicated to because she fell again and cracked her rib and hit her head. She was outside alone and did not have the strength to get up so she had to crawl across the yard to get to a chair and pull herself up. Her legs are no longer strong enough for her to get up with out help. Please pray for the Lords will to be done in this and that I would know His heart for me where my mom is concerned.

God Bless

Praying, sister. I am praying for your mom...and I am praying that the Lord will comfort both of you. He understands.

Maryjane,
I pray that God will touch your Mother, and you.
A lot of things are hard to understand, but God is still in control.
May God give you Wisdom & Knowledge concerning your Mom, and His Peace.
God Bless
Nellie

thank you everyone for your prayers. I really appreciate them. Its hard as a daughter watching my mom go through these things. In many ways I am beginning to see such a change in our roles I think. All while I was growing up she was there taking care of us all, now she is the one who needs to be taken care of. Its really hard to get use to.

God Bless

Dear Lord, certainly we will be praying.

Oh God who created man from the dust of the earth and woman from his side. You are able to do exceedingly abundantly more than what we are able to, we believe Father, we believe through Jesus Christ. Bring strength of the Holy Ghost to Mary Jane's Mother. Oh love of God, Oh love of God. Thank you Jesus, precious Jesus, Holy Lord God.
