This weekend when I have time I'll post it on a few newsgroups and forums, like the Fighting Fundamental Forum, where it will probably get a favorable response. You have to set aside time when you post on FFF because the volume is so huge, you have to keep bumping your thread to keep it from getting buried.

When Luther posted his Theses on the door, he was inviting any scholar who cared to defend indulgences to debate him. No one took him up on it till it was too late - the Reformation had begun! Do you suppose any of the worthies at ORU or Dallas would care to defend the evangelical church against these theses? Probably not. We really do need a new Reformation. I'll post on FFF probably on Saturday and put the link here.
