

Welcome & Intro :: I'm new here

I'm new here - posted by swimmer, on: 2010/2/28 10:35

I am new to this forum and just want to thank the operators of this site and all the contributors to this forum. To put it plainly, this is some good stuff here. I am hoping to be a part of this online community. The sermons have been very helpful to me with my commute; it is so good to hear God's work preached so clearly and powerfully. Thanks again.
