GREASY THE ROBBER - posted by ginnyrose (), on: 2010/3/8 19:01

Recently I came across this story on the web - I think I read it many years ago and loved it. I love it even more today.

The story details the faithfulness of God in bringing people to himself, using very unpleasant events to accomplish it.

I just think other godly folks would find this testimony of God's faithfulness just as inspiring as I did. Here is the link:
