Neil

I looked at two of the headlines and decided (knowing myself as I do) not to read any further. Fear would grab me and I would struggle with this. I am going to share it with my husband though because I know he will have interest.

Thank you for sharing and having a heart for others:)

God Bless

In reference to the Iranian plane taking pictures of one of our aircraft carriers:

"Navy commander Habibollah Sayari did not say when the incident took place, but suggested that the U.S. ship's crew had objected to the Iranian action."

Uhh... yea, I bet they did object... and I bet I know exactly how they made their feelings known! lol

I think it's best to remain eternity-minded in light of these headlines. Mary Jane you are a pilgrim and this earth is not your home. Take heart.

Re: , on: 2010/5/4 15:39

We have a man in office who is seen as spineless by tyrannical governments around the world. That's a big part of why this is happening now. They see an opportunity.

If Reagan was President... they wouldn't be doing this.

Re: MJ, on: 2010/5/4 15:58

My dear sister MJ

definitely cease reading if you feel that fear, the fear is a natural outflow of knowing that we inhabit these clay vessels that are fragile, as well as our reflexible urge to protect our children/ Sometimes the Holy Ghost helps me with this fear, so sometimes I stumble about in the thickets of my mind. its life in the natural and its life in the Holies, in Jesus, neil

Re: Steve...why?, on: 2010/5/4 16:24

Why you have to politicize this?

"We have a man in office who is seen as spineless by tyrannical governments around the world. That's a big part of why this is happening now. They see an opportunity.

If Reagan was President... they wouldn't be doing this".

If they (and/or you) see the President as "spineless" you and the Iranians are about to be given an education in the use of force in 21st century global superpower force projection.

If the President was "spineless" as you say, why then has the military wanted for nothing? DoD budget has been increased.

Why did Robert Gates stay on as Secty of Defense, serving THIS President as well as President Bush?

Why has a light weight like Condi Rice been replaced by MARINE General James Jones as National Security Advisor to the President?

If President Obama was "spineless", why did he give the go to General McChrystal's force request increase of 30,000 more troops in Afghanistan?

parrot the party line, if you want, but its a bankrupt argument, I posted this not to politicize this looming storm, but to advise the saints of whats coming, and it would have come no matter who was President, its a very bad gene pool in Iran right now.

and if you wish to look in the memory glass and President Reagan and his administrations dealings with Iran, need I remind you that it was his administration that illegally sold arms TO THE IRANIANS ("Iran-Contragate" ring a bell?) and how were we paid back by the Iranian's for this?

over 250 of our brothers in uniform, Marines were blown up while they SLEPT in their barracks in Lebanon, by terrorist funded and led by Iranian Shiites, so dont give this "if Reagan was President".

I respect and honor your service and tactical battlefield acumen and experience, but dont embarrass yourself by politicizing an event that could trigger a world at war.

I have reasons for posting those articles, believe me, I hope and pray the storm passes and never materializes, it could be THAT BAD, this nation cant afford to be paying $7 plus the gallon of gas right now, it'll sink us.

you can have the last word marine, if you want.

Re: , on: 2010/5/4 16:49

Thank you for granting me the last word. Here it is:

I love you, brother Neil.

Not gonna fight with you.

The writing has been on the wall for some time now; judgment is at the door for America. When troubles and trials come; we will need each other more than ever before!!

Build one another up in the most holy faith, encourage one another with hope as the Day draws nearer; and love one another with fervent devotion!!

Re: , on: 2010/5/4 19:02

Ah such love between brethren.....priceless!!

This is the same line of bull the corporate media fed us before the Iraq War. We shouldn't believe a word of it, considering the source. The same war-for-profit apparatus that railroaded LBJ and George W Bush into war is now working on Obama. I predict another Gulf of Tonkin within a year.

It's times like these that reveal where your trust is. If it be in the government I fear you will soon learn that was a mistake. If it be in God, whom shall we fear? Remember that it is God who places and removes the rulers of the nations. I just read Revelation last night and what can man do if God sends judgment? These articles inspire the same stirring in my spirit as Revelation...just be ready.

Re: - posted by Lysa (), on: 2010/5/4 21:16

This is just me speaking from my not-so-knowledgeable gut but judgment is at the door for ALL OF THE WORLD, not just America. If we fall, sadly the rest of the world falls. Don't get me wrong, I believe adamantly that 'Old Glory' will fly until the return of our Lord and soon coming King!

I could be wrong but I believe the reason it will "feel" worse for America is because every-single-one-of-us are spoiled beyond belief!! 80% of our population probably works further than 30 miles from home, no walking to work then.... bye bye good paying job. That's only one scenario of a trillion more.

And another thought... Just like Judas was chosen or whatever by God to play his part, whoever is President when Christ returns, they will have been chosen by God to play their part (personally, I'm leaning toward that person being a republican (just to throw off the diehards!!) lol) but that president will make all sorts of crazy decisions too!

It probably won't happen anything like that... just me having fun thinking about it!!! (huge grin)

God bless every one of us! The Lord is our strong tower and our cleft in the rock!

Saints truly as has been mentioned the rulers that be are ordained of God:

Rom 13:1 Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

Dan 5:19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

The real responsibility lies at the doors of the church which has not taken its responsibility seriously to be salt and light. As Lysa mentioned we are spoiled rotten, and have lounged around on our watch. We don't need to blame anybody besides ourselves. When a sickness is festering at a wound ignoring it doesn't make it go away. What we did is lock ourselves inside our little worlds and watch TV or listened to music to shut out the ugliness. Trouble is we didn't band together and seek His face to stop the slide. It is our fault. We have been called to turn the world upside down. But we are too spoiled and lazy.

2Ch 7:14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

We have had this promise all along, but our follow through stinks. We think we can impact our world by praying this way once a week at prayer meeting, if that much, and what about forsaking our wicked ways, on Sunday, maybe.

We don't need to blast the president, we need to pray for him. That is our job.

1Ti 2:1 ¶ I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, giving of thanks, be made for all men;

1Ti 2:2 For kings, and all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

Thanks for sharing. If anything it is well to encourage us in the faith, to be prepared for the days ahead so as not to say "aaahh peace all is fine". Encourage each other to stand on the Word through everything, even death!

We do not escape the first death by the blood of Jesus, Jesus talked about the second death, going to Hell, alot, we have escaped the wrath of God, praise Him!! He said "Don't fear man who can kill the body but fear God who can cast your body and soul into hell". He even takes hell so serious as to tell us to cut parts of our body off it causes us to keep on sinning and better to go into heaven minus a limb. Please saints Jesus knows this place, He knows the Father, He is warning us and saving us by coming to sacrifice Himself for us. Anyone read the "Apocalypse of Paul"? here is one excerpt from it after Paul was led through different parts of hell and the horrors he saw)Paul speaking....."And I sighed and wept and said: "Woe to me! woe to sinners! Why were you born?" and the angel answered and said to me: "Why are you weeping? Are you more compassionate than the Lord God, who is blessed forever, who has appointed judgement and allowed every man to choose good or evil and act as he wishes?" Again I wept even very vehemently, and he said to me: "Are you weeping, when you have not yet seen the greater punishments? Follow me and you will see those that are seven times greater than these."..... Please saints take the Christian walk seriously He is coming back for a spotless bride. We cannot be like a bit of prayer, bit of church and then commit things like adultery, slandering our neighbour, gossiping, etc. You will go to hell. The Gospel of Bartholomew is another similar book to Pauls message. They are only short books. No wonder the heavenly angels were so happy to see Jesus come into the world to save us from hell!!!! We are very dear to God, He made everything through the Word but us He made with His hands. Fear God not man.....it is our Creator we are accountable to.
