

Devotional Thoughts :: Lord be with us

Lord be with us, on: 2010/8/9 19:24

...and it was heard prayed, "Lord we plead for your presence. Please come into our presence."

...But He said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you."

(There is no place where He is not.)

...and it was heard prayed, "Lord let us hear your voice."

Yet He said, "My sheep hear my voice."

(God is always speaking, but are we listening?)

...and it was heard prayed, "Lord, anoint us by your Spirit..."

...but His testament states, "Whoever has not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His."

(Walking in the anointed, Christ Jesus Himself, He has already availed all power and authority unto us.)

Are these prayers of Faith?

Are we being faithful to God's testimony of what He declares already is, or are we looking at things we can see in ignorance of what is our eternal reality?

Love, Hope, and Faith,
gregg

...I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.
Acts 20:31-32

edited: i don't know why

Re: Lord be with us - posted by sojourner7 (), on: 2010/8/11 13:35

We are taught to ask, to seek, to knock. GOD desires that we seek
HIS presence, HIS power, HIS purpose!!
In asking we are heard, in seeking
we are found, in knocking the Door is opened to us !!

Re: Our plight - posted by buttermilk80 (), on: 2010/8/12 11:08

It is true what you say. It is our piteous plight to be locked in flesh and to crave such as is free. Yet in our plight we find strength in His Grace. Is our way marked by our own understanding? Isn't that the way of the world? We accept what we know and rest on the Mercy of God to hold us to His Great Breast.

We do not even know what we should pray. But the Spirit gives intercession on our behalf. How very simple are the people of God. And isn't that how it should be? It is to His Glory to redeem a people to Himself from those who walk in darkness. If we have even a spark of light within, we rejoice. We do not know as we should. But we are sure we are fully known.

Father direct us in Your way. Your way is life. Yes. Though we are led in darkness, yet will He lead us out.

Amen, Amen, and Amen!

Re: , on: 2010/8/12 14:11

This was not posted to demean anyone, but to consider our prayers that ignore scriptural truth.

There is a lot more to this, and I don't know exactly what God has in mind in bringing this to attention here; but, with the onset of revival here, seeing Christians repenting, miraculous healings with and without hands being laid, strangers coming in and getting saved, and so on, it's probably relative to that.

NTL, it was posted here.

-----
Last night we SAW 9 healed,
heard four doctor reports:
-two with cancer not there
- one hernia gone
-one going for testing for what was causing problems, problems having left the night before going to the Dr. and the doctors report came up empty (neck-injury)...

What is being done in these healings is not prayer requests but agreement with what God says is true and disregarding physical indicators, and God moves in this....

...just like what is done onto salvation:
"Jesus I believe and trust you to do what you promise..."

PRAISE GOD HE REMAINS THE TRUEST!

Agape,
g