

Scriptures and Doctrine :: Wesley Disallowed from Baptist Group?

Wesley Disallowed from Baptist Group? - posted by letsgetbusy (), on: 2010/8/25 21:33

Friends

I recently read a blog that stated John Wesley was not allowed to join a Baptist group after returning to Georgia. Have n ever heard this and was curious if anyone had; and if so, what is the source documentation?

Re: Wesley Disallowed from Baptist Group? - posted by philologos (), on: 2010/8/26 11:33

I can't add much to this except to say that I think John Wesley only made the one trip to the US so I can't really fit 'returni ng to Georgia' into that. On another front I can't really imagine JW ever wanting to join a baptist group. He was thorough ly Anglican and remained to all his life.

Re: Wesley Disallowed from Baptist Group? - posted by sojourner7 (), on: 2010/8/26 11:44

Wesley and his followers called themselves Methodists. Wesley did not hold to the position of eternal security; so he would not have become a Baptist!

Re: - posted by philologos (), on: 2010/8/26 14:25

sojourner7 on 2010/8/26 13:44:07

"Wesley did not hold to the position of eternal security; so he would not have become a Baptist!"

...neither do all baptists! ;-)