

Devotional Thoughts :: The Gift of God - Nee*The Gift of God - Nee - posted by AbideinHim (), on: 2010/9/5 17:19

"The Lord my Portion" September 6

Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. John 4.10.

God never sells anything. "Gift" means something freely given. God always gives freely to men. And He will give to whoever asks. God gives us sunlight without charge; He gives us rainfall without cost. He will also give you spiritual satisfaction in exactly the same fashion.

Once there was a child who loved his mother dearly. He thought of buying some flowers to please her heart. He had only two pennies in his pocket. That day he saw a most beautiful garden, and entered it thinking of buying some flowers. A gentleman was there to whom he expressed his wish. So the gentleman picked some flowers and handed them to him. The boy politely said that he could not take the flowers without paying. But the man replied: "My flowers are always given freely. If you want them, I will give them to you." Who was that man? He was the Prince of Wales, and this was the royal garden. Royal things are never for sale.

Re: The Gift of God - Nee - posted by PaulWest (), on: 2010/9/5 19:09

Thank you for this. Nee is a tremendous source of edification.

Re: The Gift of God - Nee - posted by Goldminer (), on: 2010/9/5 21:56

Oh Yes...