

News and Current Events :: Corpus Christi 'Church' replaces pulpit for an elliptical machine

Corpus Christi 'Church' replaces pulpit for an elliptical machine - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2010/9/14 21:24

CORPUS CHRISTI — Pastor Bil Cornelius of Bay Area Fellowship isn't just preaching the word. He's preaching it while working out.

He is issuing a challenge to his congregation and the entire city: If you're not happy with your health, do something about it.

The pastor gave six sermons Saturday and Sunday while sweating and huffing on an elliptical machine. He swapped his trademark jeans and polo shirt for workout pants and a black T-shirt proclaiming "I am changed!"

"You have to keep going against the resistance," he told the crowd. "If you get the results that you want, it's because you paid the price." ...

read more: <http://www.caller.com/news/2010/sep/10/pastor-dares-city-to-better-fitness/>

watch the video: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=J3WHRMLhOkc>

Re: Corpus Christi 'Church' replaces pulpit for an elliptical machine - posted by hoohoou (), on: 2010/9/14 21:52

Same guy who was giving away cars on Easter Sunday this year.