Hi everyone,

Tomorrow at 5:00pm (eastern) I have to go to the oncologist to have some x-rays and blood work done. This is follow-up from my incident with melanoma a few months ago. The x-rays will show my lungs and lymph nodes and liver, etc... to make sure there is nothing there.

Waiting for the results will also be a hard time of waiting for me. Any prayers from anyone would be appreciated. My anxiety usually gets very bad during these things. I pray that the Lord will help me to be at peace.

Thank you so much my friends! :-)

In His love, Chanin

I will be praying Chanin! may the Lord walk with you hand in hand as you do this. Be not afraid, I am with you. I am not sure you read the book "Hinds feet on High Places" but the deer symbolically whenever anxiety or fear came would simply call out to the "shepard" and he would come so quickly. What a re-assurance that our heavenly friend is there with us watching over us. I will be in prayer, I know things will go well. ;-)

Hi Chanin,

After reading your wonderful post the other day about the gentleman on the airplane that the Lord had sent, you for him and himself for you... I feel assured that He will have another 'Angel' nearby in some way to bring you comfort and allay your 'fears'.

We will be praying for you sister.

*Note: Just to clarify, this will explain and is very touching as well, thanks Chanin for sharing this, been meaning to respond;

Philippians 4:6-7 - Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

We are praying Chanin. :-D

Thank you for your prayers. Actually this was my first visit to the Oncologist so they mostly talked on and on about melanoma and the risks, etc... and the tests that I should do. We finally decided on a full MRI and cat scan along with chest x rays and bloodwork. So, now I still have to go and do all of that. :( So no tests yet.

I really just want to get on with my life. Hopefully after all the tests are done, I can do that. Dr's offices scare me to death. I literally get sick if I see bad things or hear them talk in detail about bodily things.

The Lord has shown me that fear and anxiety are my weakness. He will be faithful to be my strength where I am weak. I can only overcome by laying in His arms because I've done everything to try not to have fear and anxiety. I felt I had let the Lord down. But He showed me that He is still glorified in me because His power is made perfect in my weakness. I have refused medication (anti-depressants and anti-anxiety) about 4 times now- even though I have had some major dealings with the anxiety in the last couple of months. I tell the doctors that the Lord alone will be enough. I know I may not be totally at peace and show no fear, but He still is enough for me. He has shown me that it is enough, that this does glorify Him. I know that in my suffering (with the fear and anxiety) that He is producing endurance in me.

"More than that we rejoice in sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, endurance produces character, and character produces HOPE." (Romans 5:3-4)

"From this we infer that endurance is first among the proofs of spiritual power. It is the ability to endure steadfastly under continuous pressure that tests the reality of our call as the Lord's "sent ones." Patience and longsuffering with joy are to be found only in those who know what it is to be "strengthened with all power according to the might of His glory." -Watchman Nee

Thanks again for your prayers!!

In His love, Chanin

Chanin, I know exactly how you feel. The feeling of literally giving it up to God and saying I can't battle this anymore. Nothing will be able to ever supercede the Love of Christ that has wrought our lives from death to life.. nothing! Its all stages of what the Lord is bring us through, it will all make sense in the end. I also feel strongly there are choices we can make to help stay in the Will of God and allow ourselves not to sit in a place that was meant for our building up but then becomes a snare. I have the same struggles almost daily and its something the I am really giving to the Lord daily almost. I w

I just want to update a bit and kindly ask for prayer.

I went back for my 3 month check up yesterday and also got the results of a chest x-ray. The Dr. is sending me for a CT scan of my lungs again because they reported "something" in the lower right lung. he said it could be nothing and they may be just over reading it because I am young and because of my health history.

I go for the ct scan on Thursday the 28th.

I am concerned about this, but also about my anxiety and my nausea. I have been feeling sick off and on for the past week or so- but more so now- hopefully it's just nerves. The first thing they ask you when you go in for your check up is if you've been nauseous :0

Today has been the worst for me. I have been pretty sick all day and it just makes me worry more.

If you feel led, will someone pray for my peace of mind. The worst thing is that i don't want to not be able to do anything with my children. I feel so guilty.

Thank you!

In His love, Chanin

Dear sister,

please do not worry about your kids, this a time you need to trust God that He is taken care of them.

it's a blessing to see them and this is not to exalt your work, but His alone, when i was checking out the xanga's of your children for example "jesus is the best" (i was stunned by those simple words (www.xanga.com/helensonshine)) and when i talked with your daughter, there was one thing that was great to see.

they are living for Him, to see Christ exalted, it's a blessing to talk with her and check out their xanga's.

but however, sometimes you need to trust that The Lord is holding them while you cannot hold them.

so please be still and know/trust, in the dutch translation it is written "let go and know". God can draw them near to Himself, and He will use you to glorify Himself.

He blessed you, but we need to go and trust Him in good times and hard times (like that song of Mat Redman - Blessed Be Your Name, if you want the song, i can send it to you), and remember you will become more like Him ;-) pray for them and you aswell!

in His Love

William

i feel that i need to post the lyrics here aswell

Matt Redman - Blessed Be Your Name

Blessed Be Your Name
In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow
Blessed be Your Name

Blessed Be Your Name
When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness
Blessed Be Your Name

Every blessing You pour out
I'll turn back to praise
When the darkness closes in
Still I will say

Blessed be the Name of the Lord
Blessed be Your Name
Blessed be the Name of the Lord
Blessed be Your glorious Name

Blessed be Your Name
When the sun's shining down on me
When the world's 'all as it should be'
Blessed be Your Name

Blessed be Your Name
On the road marked with suffering
Though there's pain in the offering
Blessed be Your Name

Every blessing You pour out
I'll turn back to praise
When the darkness closes in
Still I will say

Blessed be the Name of the Lord
Blessed be Your Name
Blessed be the Name of the Lord
Blessed be Your glorious Name

You give and take away
You give and take away
My heart will choose to say
Lord Blessed be Your Name

Dear sister, I believe you are totaly in His hands! There is most secure!

Be blessed by these words of George Muller:

My Heavenly Friend

The precious Lord Jesus Christ is our friend. Oh, let us seek to realize this! It is not merely a religious phrase or statement, but truly He is our friend. He is the Brother "born for adversity," the one who "sticks closer than a brother." Who will never leave and never forsake us.

How precious even on earth to have a heavenly friend, for this brings the joys of heaven in a little degree into our hearts now. This is just what our heavenly Father desires regarding His children, that they might be as happy as they are capable of being while here in the body. Have we entered into this, that the One who is "altogether lovely" is ready hour by hour, to be our Friend?

When we cannot sleep at night, say to Christ, "My precious heavenly Friend, wilt Thou give me a little sleep?" When in pain, say, "My precious heavenly Friend, if it may please Thee, wilt Thou take away this pain? But if not, if Thou sees better that it should continue, sustain, help, and strengthen me, my precious heavenly friend!" When we feel lonely and tired, turn to the precious Lord Jesus; He is willing to be our friend in our loneliness. For sixty-two years and five months I had a beloved wife, and now in my ninety-second year I am left alone. But I turn to my precious Lord Jesus as I walk up and down in my room, and say, "My precious Lord Jesus, I am alone, and yet not alone, Thou art with me; Thou art my friend; now Lord, comfort me and strengthen me, give to Thy poor servant everything Thou sees he needs."

Oh, this is a reality, not a fable, that the Lord Jesus Christ is our friend. We should not be satisfied till we are brought to this, that we know the Lord Jesus Christ experientially to be our friend and habitually to be our friend. Just ponder this. Habitually, never leaving, never forsaking us, at all times and under all circumstances ready to prove Himself to be our friend.

He is willing not merely to grant this for a few months, or a year or two, but to the very end of our earthly pilgrimage. David, in Psalm 23 says: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me." Oh, how precious this is. For this "Lovely One" is coming again, and soon. Soon He will come again; and then He will take us home and there we shall be forever with Him. Oh, how precious is that bright and glorious prospect. Here again the practical point is to appropriate this to ourselves. "He is coming to take me-poor, guilty, worthless, hell-deserving me- He is coming to take me to Himself." And to the degree in which we enter into these glorious things, the joys of heaven have already commenced!

I wanted to thank you all for your prayers. I got the ct scan results back and everything about them was NORMAL! :-)

I am hoping now that I know this, that my nausea will start to diminish.

Praise God! All I can think of is that I still have more time with my family- to raise my children as I know I should and to bring them up in the truth.

When I get worried like that I tend to start planning my own funeral. Isn't that awful? I can tell you it makes me appreciate LIFE and the time I have here- I want to glorify God with my time and my LIFE.

Thanks again!
