I was just reading this passage in Genesis this week and was abit staggered at the fact that God created man (without a soul/spirit) then breathed into his notrils the breath of life. And then he created the garden of eden, and then placed man into the garden

Man is from the dust of the earth and utlimately was formed from what was not, for Gods word spoke and things were.

Genesis 2:7-8 - And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

I think this is important.

It basically says that without God, we do not have the "breath of life".

Not only in the first instance (as in Adam's case) but continually as God's sustaining power holds all things together. :-D

A. God created man male and female, after his own image, in knowledge, righteousness, and holiness, with dominion over the creatures.

Genesis 1:27. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Colossians 3:10. And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him.

Ephesians 4:24. And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

Genesis 1:28. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. Psalm 8. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
